

REIGN FC BATTLES TO SCORELESS DRAW AGAINST NJ/NY GOTHAM FC AT SPORTS ILLUSTRATED STADIUM ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Seattle goalkeeper Claudia Dickey earns her 13th regular-season shutout of her career with five saves, tying Phallon Tullis-Joyce for the most in club history

HARRISON, N.J. – Seattle Reign FC (9-7-7, 34 points) battled to a scoreless draw against NJ/NY Gotham FC (9-6-8, 35 points) at Sports Illustrated Stadium on Sunday afternoon.

Claudia Dickey delivered another standout performance, recording five saves to secure her seventh clean sheet of the season and 13th of her career. The 25-year-old keeper was called into action early, producing three crucial stops in the first half, including back-to-back saves against Rose Lavelle. In the 31st minute, Lavelle fired from close range inside the penalty area, but Dickey handled it cleanly. The fourth-year goalkeeper added two more saves in the 68th and 88th minutes to preserve the shutout as both teams settled for a point.

Reign FC returns to Lumen Field for the first of two consecutive home matches, beginning with Bay FC on Friday, October 10 (7:30 p.m. PT / FOX 13+, NWSL+, Paramount+).
