MATCHUP HISTORY

The Spirit holds a 10-11-7 all-time regular season record in matches played against Seattle with a -4 goal differential (35-39). Not included in this record is a 0-3 forfeit loss in 2021. Excluding the 2021 forfeit, Washington has not lost a regular season home match to Seattle since 2018. With a win on Sunday, the Spirit can even its competitive regular season record against the Reign for the first time since the NWSL's inaugural season in 2013 and match its longest home winning streak against a single opponent in club history.

TURNING THE TABLES

After holding a 4-10-5 regular season record against Seattle through its first 19 matches in the series, Washington has flipped the script against the Pacific Northwest-based side since the start of the 2020s. In the past ten regular season matches, the Spirit holds a 6-1-2 record in matches played (excludes 2021 forfeit loss), with its only competitive loss coming in last year's season opener at Lumen Field.

A CAPITAL INTRODUCTION

Italian summer transfer Sofia Cantore has scored in each of her first two home matches with the Spirit at Audi Field, becoming just the third player in club history to do so after Leicy Santos last season and Diana Matheson (first three) in Washington's inaugural season. With a goal on Sunday, Cantore can become the eighth player in NWSL history to score in each of her first three home matches with a club.
