Quick Hits

- Bay FC is unbeaten in three all-time meetings with Seattle, recording a pair of wins in the 2024 season before playing a 1-1 draw in April this year. Seattle is one of three NWSL teams (North Carolina, Racing Louisville) Bay FC has never lost to
- Bay FC extended its run of consecutive road games with a goal to nine after scoring at Portland on Saturday and now has found the net in 24 of its 26 away matches in all competitions. Bay FC's nine straight away games with a goal is the longest active streak in the NWSL.
- Alyssa Malonson made nine interceptions for Bay FC against Portland on Saturday, the most by any player in a regular-season match since Sarah Woldmoe made nine for Chicago against North Carolina in August 2021. Malonson's 52 interceptions this season are second only to Racing Louisville's Taylor Flint (67).
- Defender Caprice Dydasco is on pace to become Bay FC's first Ironwoman, having played every minute of every match this season. She has started and played the full 90 in the past 33 matches. Including the 23 minutes she played prior to her start streak, Dydasco has played 2,993 consecutive minutes for Bay FC

Albertin Montoya was named Bay FC's first head coach on Sept. 27, 2023. Prior to joining Bay FC, he served as the interim head coach for the NWSL's Washington Spirit in 2022. His Bay Area ties run deep, having coached and played in the region throughout his youth, collegiate, and professional career.

Montoya has led some of the most historically successful teams in the women's game. He served as head coach of FC Gold Pride in Women's Professional Soccer (WPS) from 2009 to 2010 – leading the team to the league title in 2010. He served as co-head coach of California Storm from 1999-2006, leading the club to three Women's Premier Soccer League (WPSL) titles and six final appearances in seven seasons. He led the U-17 U.S. Women's National Team to a berth in the 2012 U-17 Women's World Cup, where the squad narrowly missed out on the knockout stage. He was named the 2010 SoccerAmerica Women's Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the 2010 FIFA Women's Coach of the Year honor.

BAY FC NEWS & NOTES

Bay FC closes out a two-match swing in the Pacific Northwest under Friday night lights this week, visiting Seattle Reign FC at Lumen Field Oct. 10. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. PT, and the match will be broadcast on NWSL+, Paramount+ and NBC Sports Bay Area.

Bay FC looks to play spoiler on the Washington side's playoff hopes and bounce back from a pair of defeats. The club showed well in its visit to Portland Thorns FC in Week 23, taking a 1-0 advantage into halftime behind a strong first half performance at Providence Park. With just three matches remaining in 2025, Bay FC sets its eyes on finishing the season strong.

PLAYERS TO WATCH

Bay FC midfielder Hannah Bebar – Bebar was key to Bay FC's efforts to advance up the pitch in Portland. Across 90 minutes, the rookie tallied a match-high three chances created and won possession 11 times, more than any player on either squad. As Bay FC looks to keep control of the ball, her work rate and role as a facilitator could have a factor Friday night.

Seattle Reign goalkeeper Claudia Dickey – Dickey's five saves moved her up into the league lead in stops coming into Friday's match. None was more important than a leaping effort in the 32nd minute to keep an attempt by Rose Lavelle from sneaking under the bar. She's been one of the league's best under pressure, recording the third-best save percentage (75.5%) among goalkeepers playing at least ten games this season.

SHINING IN HER FIRST SEASON

Midfielder Taylor Huff's goal Saturday vs. Portland marked the third of her rookie season and first since Aug. 10 at Chicago. She's been one of the league's top-performing first-year players in 2025, with her 1,975 minutes ranking second and three goals tied for third among rookies. Huff and Angel City FC forward Riley Tiernan are the only rookies to start all 23 regular season matches so far this season.

BACK IN ACTION

Bay FC forward Racheal Kundananji will be available for selection in this week's match after missing the club's previous contest serving a disciplinary suspension. The Zambian has been in strong form the second half of the season, scoring three goals since returning from international duty in July. Kundananji scored in back-to-back games in September and in three of five games between Aug. 23 and Sept. 21.

OPPONENT REPORT

Seattle enters this week amidst a group of six teams separated by only four points in the league standings. Currently, the Reign sit in fifth on 34 points, tied with Portland and one back of Gotham FC in third. The club played to a scoreless draw last week at Gotham FC, claiming its third unbeaten result in four games behind a strong defensive showing to hold off its hosts' potent attack.

Defending and attacking efficiency have led the way for the club of late, with three shutouts in its last six games. Between the sticks, Dickey has been one of the league's most steady players, leading the league in saves entering Friday's match. The club's attack has seen contributions come from all over this season. With attacking forward Lynn Biyendolo out of action since August with a knee injury, youngster forward Emeri Adams has stepped up in her stead, leading the squad with six goals this season and midfielder Jess Fishlock and forward Maddie Dahlien have putting together strong stretches.

HEAD-TO-HEAD HISTORY – SEA vs BAY

Alongside Louisville and North Carolina, Seattle is one of three teams that has never beaten Bay FC. The two clubs played to a 1-1 draw at PayPal Park earlier this season on April 26, with Racheal Kundananji netting her first score of 2025. Bay FC bested the Reign 3-2 in the teams' first-ever matchup last season, then sweeping the 2024 fixture with a 1-0 result in late September as the squad pushed for a playoff berth.
