

REIGN FC SEALS 1-0 VICTORY AGAINST RACING LOUISVILLE FC AT LUMEN FIELD ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Veteran midfielder Jess Fishlock secures three points for Seattle with her fifth goal of the season and 47th of her career; Goalkeeper Claudia Dickey records her sixth shutout of the season and 12th of her NWSL career

SEATTLE, WASH. – Seattle Reign FC (8-6-6, 30 points) earned a 1-0 win over Racing Louisville FC (7-8-5, 26 points) at Lumen Field on Tuesday night.

Racing generated 10 first-half shots, but goalkeeper Claudia Dickey produced three saves to keep the match scoreless at halftime. She added another stop in the 78th minute to secure her sixth shutout of the season and 12th of her NWSL career.

The breakthrough came after Seattle brought on rookie Maddie Dahlien in the 73rd minute and club original Jess Fishlock in the 85th. In the 90th minute, Dahlien broke free toward goal and delivered a pass across the top of the box, where Fishlock calmly finished between two closing defenders to seal the win.

Reign FC next travels to CPKC Stadium for its second meeting of the season with the Kansas City Current on Saturday, September 20 (4:30 p.m. PT / ION).

MATCH NOTES

- CLAUDIA DICKEY: With four saves in this game, Claudia Dickey secured her sixth shutout of the season, extending her single-season best. The 25-year-old now has 12 regular-season clean sheets in her NWSL career, just one shy of tying Phallon Tullis-Joyce for most in club history.
- MIA FISHEL: In her sixth appearance for the club, Mia Fishel earned her first NWSL start, recording two shots – both on target.
- JESS FISHLOCK: As a second-half substitute, Jess Fishlock delivered the game-winning goal in the 90th minute, her fifth of the season. It marks the first time since 2021 – the year she was named NWSL Most Valuable Player – that the Welsh midfielder has scored five goals in a single campaign. Fishlock now has 47 goals and 30 assists in regular-season play, with her combined 77 goal contributions tied for sixth in league history alongside Megan Rapinoe and Debinha.
- SERIES: With the result, Reign FC improves to 4-1-6 all-time against Racing Louisville FC across all NWSL competitions.
- UP NEXT: Reign FC (8-6-6, 30 points) travels to CPKC Stadium for its second meeting with the Kansas City Current (16-2-2, 50 points) on Saturday, September 20 (4:30 p.m. PT / ION).
