

SEATTLE REIGN FC 3 CHICAGO STARS FC 3

Lumen Field – August 18, 2025 – 7:00 p.m. PT – Attendance: 7,290

- GOALS AND ASSISTS: Reign FC now has four different players who have recorded both a goal and an assist in a single game this season – Maddie Dahlien, Jess Fishlock, Jordyn Huitema and Ji So-Yun. The only other NWSL club with at least four such players in 2025 is the Kansas City Current.
- MULTIPLE GOALS: For the first time in club history, Reign FC has scored multiple goals in six consecutive matches. Previously, the longest streak was five straight matches, achieved three times (twice in 2014 and once in 2015), both during the Shield-winning seasons.
- EMERI ADAMES: Emeri Adames struck just seconds into the second half, scoring in the 46th minute for Seattle's third goal of the night. The 19-year-old attacker now has five goals in her last six matches and leads the team with six goals this season. Adames' six goals in 2025 tie the NWSL single-season record for the most goals by a teenager, joining Sam Kerr (2013), Mallory Swanson (2017), Trinity Rodman (2021) and Jaedyn Shaw (2023).
- JESS FISHLOCK: Club original Jess Fishlock opened the scoring in the third minute, her fourth goal of the season and 46th of her NWSL career. The Welsh midfielder has now contributed to a goal in four consecutive appearances, the longest streak by a Reign player since Megan Rapinoe's run of seven straight in 2022. Against the Stars, Fishlock has scored a head-to-head best eight goals and contributed to 11 overall across all competitions.
- JORDYN HUITEMA: Jordyn Huitema assisted Fishlock's opener in the third minute before doubling the lead with a goal of her own in the 34th. This is the second time in her NWSL career that Huitema has recorded both a goal and an assist in the same match.
- SERIES: With tonight's result, Reign FC holds a record of 11-12-10 against Chicago Stars FC across all NWSL competitions.
- UP NEXT: Reign FC (7-5-4, 25 points) is back on the road to face the Houston Dash (5-8-3, 18 points) at Shell Energy Stadium on Sunday, August 24 (4:00 p.m. PT / NWSL+, Paramount+).
