OFF THE FIELD

FIRST CANADIAN: In 2019, Huitema decided to forgo college, becoming the first Canadian woman to turn pro out of high school in signing a four-year contract with Paris Saint-Germain.

"This is obviously my first team in the NWSL and it's the best team I've played on ever in my life, probably. The group is incredible and it's genuine. It's not fake, what you see is what you get, everything that we do on the field for games, we're doing it in training times 10. We're just wild and we love each other and it's so genuine. We have each other's backs so much and we have hard conversations, we say tough things and then we're open arms after games. It's just all of it. It's such a healthy relationship with everybody within the team, it's just so good, front to back, top to bottom, coaching staff involved as well, it's just such an incredible group that I'm really proud to be a part of because it's incredible. It's kind of unheard of in a way. I haven't played on a lot of teams that have this kind of connection, so it's definitely special."
