Quick Hits

- Defender Abby Dahlkemper's return from maternity leave on Wednesday vs. Gotham FC marked her first NWSL appearance in 404 days. She welcomed her first child in February and had last appeared for Bay FC June 21, 2025. She is the fifth mother to return from maternity leave this season.
- With nine saves on Wednesday against Gotham FC, Jordan Silkowitz has made 65 saves this season, tying Jane Campbell for the most in the NWSL. Along with a 12-save performance against Gotham FC in April, Silkowitz is the only goalkeeper with multiple games with nine or more saves this season.
- Bay FC is unbeaten in four all-time meetings with Seattle Reign, winning both matches in 2024 before drawing both in 2025. Seattle is the only team that Bay FC did not lose to at least once in the club's first two NWSL regular seasons.
- Bay FC has allowed just three goals over its last five regular-season home matches after conceding multiple goals in eight of its previous 10 home matches dating back to last August (22 total goals conceded).

BAY FC NEWS & NOTES

MATCH RECAP: BAYvGFC (NWSL WEEK 15)

Bay FC fell 1-0 Wednesday night at PayPal Park in a tight contest vs. defending NWSL champion Gotham FC. An early goal by the visitors stood as the winner, although a valiant effort by Bay FC saw the club nearly equalize throughout the contest.

Gotham scored in just the 2nd minute to take its early advantage. Service from a corner kick was placed inside the six-yard box, where midfielder Jaelin Howell headed the ball backward to defender Midge Purce to calmly slot the ball through traffic and over the line.

Bay FC thought they had equalized five minutes later when midfielder Kennedy Fuller tapped through a headed assist by forward Cristiana Girelli inside the box. A lengthy controversial VAR review brought the score back for offside, keeping the visitors early advantage intact. The club tested Gotham FC throughout the remainder of the half to get the goal back, forcing three saves out of opposing keeper Shelby Hogan.

Bay FC goalkeeper Jordan Silkowitz saved what could have been a second goal by the visitors shortly after the halftime break. A long passing sequence put the ball at the feet of forward Sam Kerr who sent a shot towards the far post, but an all-out dive saw Silkowitz get her fingertips to the ball to knock it off course just enough to avoid the target.

Defender Abby Dahlkemper earned an ovation from a raucous crowd in the 84th minute as she entered off the bench for defender Joelle Anderson. Activated from maternity leave earlier in the day after welcoming her first child in February, it marked her first NWSL appearance since June 2025. The two-time NWSL champion and 2019 World Cup winner became the fifth player to return from maternity leave this season, joining Chicago Stars forward Mallory Swanson, Portland Thorns FC forward Sophia Wilson, Kansas City Current midfielder Vanessa DiBernardo, Angel City FC forward Claire Emslie, and Washington Spirit midfielder Andi Sullivan.

PLAYERS TO WATCH

Bay FC midfielder Kennedy Fuller: Fuller has been stellar since joining Bay FC from Angel City in June. She scored what looked to be an equalizer for her club Wednesday before VAR took her second goal in a Bay FC shirt off the board. She's been crucial to the club's build-up play in recent weeks, recording 10 chances created, tied for fourth in the league since the resumption of play July 3.

Seattle Reign FC forward Maddie Mercado: Mercado has tallied a goal in each of her last three matches, leading an in-form Seattle attacking unit. Her scoring streak has made her Seattle's leading scorer this season, and the club has lost only once when she has found the back of the net.

BAY FC x ROSS

This summer, Bay FC and Ross have connected with Bay Area public library systems to promote their summer reading programs. Throughout the summer, Bay FC players will visit libraries to share their favorite stories, sign autographs, and take photos while sharing the importance of year-long learning. At this weekend's match, all fans are encouraged to bring new or gently used children's books to either gate before the August 1st match vs. Seattle Reign FC. All books will be donated to support Bay Area library systems. For fans who are unable to donate in person on August 1, you can still get involved by directly supporting Bay Area public libraries.

WELCOME TO THE BAY

Bay FC announced today that the club has acquired Argentine midfielder Agostina Holzheier via transfer from Primera Division A's Racing Club. The Crespo, Argentina native has signed a four-year contract through 2029, with a fifth year option. Holzheier joins the club following three-plus seasons with Racing Club, based in Avellaneda near Buenos Aires. In 2026, she's scored seven goals in league play, ranking as one of the league's top scorers and helping her club to the top of the table in Apertura play, the Primera Division A spring season. She has represented Argentina at the senior international level since 2021. She helped La Albiceleste punch its ticket to next year's FIFA Women's World Cup in Brazil earlier this year, assisting the game-winner in her side's June 10 win over Ecuador.

ROSTER MOVE: BAY » SD

Thursday, Bay FC announced that the club has agreed to loan defender Brooklyn Courtall to San Diego Wave FC for the remainder of 2026. Courtall has joined the SoCal club ahead of this week's matches. Courtall joined Bay FC via transfer from the North Carolina Courage ahead of the 2026 season after finishing 2025 with Bay FC on loan. She's tallied 11 appearances (seven starts) with the club, recording 745 minutes. She's appeared in 18 games with Bay FC since her mid-season acquisition in 2025. She made her senior international debut in March at the 2026 SheBelieves Cup, joining Canada as it took on Colombia, Argentina, and the United States and logging 99 minutes across two appearances.

KNOW YOUR OPPONENT

Seattle has traded wins and losses in each of the last four weeks, but nonetheless has seven goals and two shutouts in that span. The club visits the Bay Area off a strong 2-0 victory at San Diego, where two scores in three minutes early on proved to be the difference. The club has experienced some ups and downs defensively, allowing three scores late to Gotham FC in its July 18 trip east, as well as in its first match back from the break on July 4.

The Reign attacking unit has proven capable of threatening from all areas of the pitch throughout the season. Entering Week 15, 11 different players have scored at least once for the club, the highest tally in the league. Midfielder Ainsley McCammon and defender Sofia Huerta have dished out the majority of the opportunities, combining for seven assists.

BAY FC FOOTBALL STAFF

Emma Coates
Head Coach

Emma Coates was named Bay FC's second head coach in club history on Dec. 4, 2025. She joins the club after serving as head coach of England's Women's Under-23 national team since 2023. She has built a reputation for her emphasis on individual player growth, culture building and modern, possession-based football.

Under her leadership, the Lionesses' Under-23 squad went unbeaten in their 2023-2024 European league campaign, and saw over 25 players make the senior squad during her tenure. She was part of the extended technical team for the England Lionesses' reign as back-to-back UEFA Women's EURO champions in 2022 and 2025 and their appearance in the World Cup Final in 2023. Coates holds a UEFA Pro License.
