GAME NOTES

POSTGAME NOTES

SEATTLE REIGN FC 1
ORLANDO PRIDE 0

Lumen Field – Sunday, November 1, 2026 – 2:00 p.m. PT – Attendance: 16,095

- A NEW XI: Reign FC fielded its 24th unique starting XI across 30 matches this season, continuing to showcase the club's depth. Seattle made changes from its scoreless draw against Utah Royals FC on October 23, with Madison Curry and Mia Fishel entering the starting lineup in place of Ryanne Brown and Emeri Adames.

- LOUD LUMEN: Today's attendance of 16,095 marked Reign FC's highest-attended match of the 2026 season and third-highest standalone regular-season attendance in club history. Fishlock also started in the club's inaugural home match on May 4, 2013, when Seattle hosted FC Kansas City at Starfire Stadium in front of 2,618 fans.

- PLAYOFF BOUND: With today's 1-0 victory over the Orlando Pride, Reign FC clinched its ninth NWSL Playoffs appearance in club history and seventh under Head Coach Laura Harvey.

- JORDYN BUGG: Jordyn Bugg scored the game-winning goal in the 68th minute, marking her second goal of the season and fifth of her NWSL career.

- CLAUDIA DICKEY: Claudia Dickey recorded her ninth shutout of the season, extending her single-season career high.

- JESS FISHLOCK: In her final NWSL regular-season match, Jess Fishlock finished her career as Reign FC's all-time leader in regular-season goals (52) and assists (31), while ranking second in appearances (232) and starts (212).

- SERIES: With today's result, Seattle now holds an all-time record of 9-6-8 against the Orlando Pride across all competitions.

- UP NEXT: Reign FC (14-11-5, 47 points) travels to Sports Illustrated Stadium to face 2026 NWSL Shield winners Gotham FC (18-5-7, 61 points) in the NWSL quarterfinals on Sunday, November 8 (9:30 a.m. PT / ABC, ESPN Deportes).

– REIGN FC –

