POSTGAME NOTES: REIGN FC VS. DENVER SUMMIT FC

SEATTLE REIGN FC 0
DENVER SUMMIT FC 0

ONE Spokane Stadium – April 4, 2026 – 5:45 p.m. PT – Attendance: 3,952

- DIFFERENT XI: Reign FC has fielded a different starting XI in each of its first five matches of the 2026 season, highlighting the club's depth. Six players have started all five games – Claudia Dickey, Sam Meza and the full backline of Phoebe McClernon, Madison Curry, Sofia Huerta and Emily Mason.
- HOME STREAK CONTINUES: Seattle extended its home unbeaten streak to 10 matches (6W, 4D), dating back to August 1, 2025. It marks the club's longest home unbeaten run since a 12-game stretch from June 2018 to June 2019 (7W, 5D) and is the longest active streak in the league.
- SPOKANE SUCCESS: With tonight's result, Reign FC earned seven points across its three-match homestand at ONE Spokane Stadium, defeating the Kansas City Current and Racing Louisville FC and drawing Denver Summit FC. Seattle outscored its opponents 5-1 during the 11-day stretch.
- THE SURGE BEGINS: Reign FC officially debuted its 2026 third kit, The Surge Kit, in Saturday's match.
- CLAUDIA DICKEY: Claudia Dickey recorded three saves to bring her season total to 20. After entering the match tied with Hope Solo for the club's all-time regular season saves record (187), Dickey now stands alone atop the list with 190 saves. She also holds club records in shutouts (15) and goalkeeper appearances (55).
- SERIES: Saturday marked the first-ever meeting between Reign FC and Denver Summit FC, with the all-time series level at 0-0-1.

- UP NEXT: The NWSL enters an international break before Reign FC (3-1-1, 10 points) returns for its Seattle home opener at Lumen Field against Utah Royals FC (2-2-1, 7 points) on Sunday, April 26 (5:00 p.m. PT / Victory+).
