REIGN FC
2026 STORYLINES

WE'RE BACK

Seattle Reign FC returns to the NWSL Playoffs for the ninth time in club history and seventh time in the last eight seasons. After missing the postseason in 2024, Reign FC bounced back with a fifth-place finish in 2025 before falling to the Orlando Pride on the road in the quarterfinals. Entering last year's postseason, 17 players on Seattle's roster had never competed in an NWSL playoff match, with 10 making their postseason debuts in the quarterfinal matchup. This year, Seattle enters the playoffs with greater postseason experience across its roster, including 18 contracted players who have appeared in at least one playoff match.

SET ME UP FOR SUCCESS

Sofia Huerta, the NWSL's all-time assists leader with 36, has likened the role of an assister to that of a quarterback, reading the field and delivering the pass that puts a teammate in position to score. That playmaking mentality was evident throughout Seattle's roster in 2026, with 12 different players recording an assist and seven registering multiple assists, both totals tying club single-season records.

Huerta, Maddie Dahlien and Ainsley McCammon shared the team lead with four assists apiece. McCammon delivered a standout performance on July 26, recording multiple assists in Seattle's 2-0 road victory over San Diego Wave FC. At just 18 years old, McCammon surpassed Trinity Rodman's league record to become the youngest player in NWSL history to record multiple assists in a single match.

DEFENSE DOESN'T SLEEP

Seattle established itself as one of the NWSL's strongest defensive teams throughout the 2026 regular season, recording 12 clean sheets to tie the club's single-season record. Reign FC achieved the mark while utilizing seven defenders and two goalkeepers, with veteran defender Phoebe McClernon standing as the only player on the roster to start all 30 matches. The team's most frequent defensive combination featured McClernon, Ryanne Brown, Jordyn Bugg and Sofia Huerta, who started together in 13 matches, while Madison Curry, Emily Mason and Shae Holmes also rotated in throughout the campaign.

Seattle's defensive strength was particularly evident at home, where the club recorded seven clean sheets in its final nine regular season matches and finished with a league-best nine home shutouts. Sunday's quarterfinal against Gotham FC brings together two of the league's top defensive teams, which combined for 26 clean sheets during the regular season. Gotham led the NWSL in fewest goals conceded (23), while Seattle ranked fifth (33).

THE GREATEST FISH IN THE SEA

If it wasn't clear all season, especially on Decision Day, Seattle has been playing for more than a win each week. On April 21, exactly 14 years after scoring her first NWSL goal, Jess Fishlock announced that she would retire at the conclusion of the 2026 season. The club "OG" recorded five goal contributions during the regular season, highlighted by a brace against Boston Legacy FC on September 25 that saw her tie and surpass Megan Rapinoe as the club's all-time leading goal scorer.

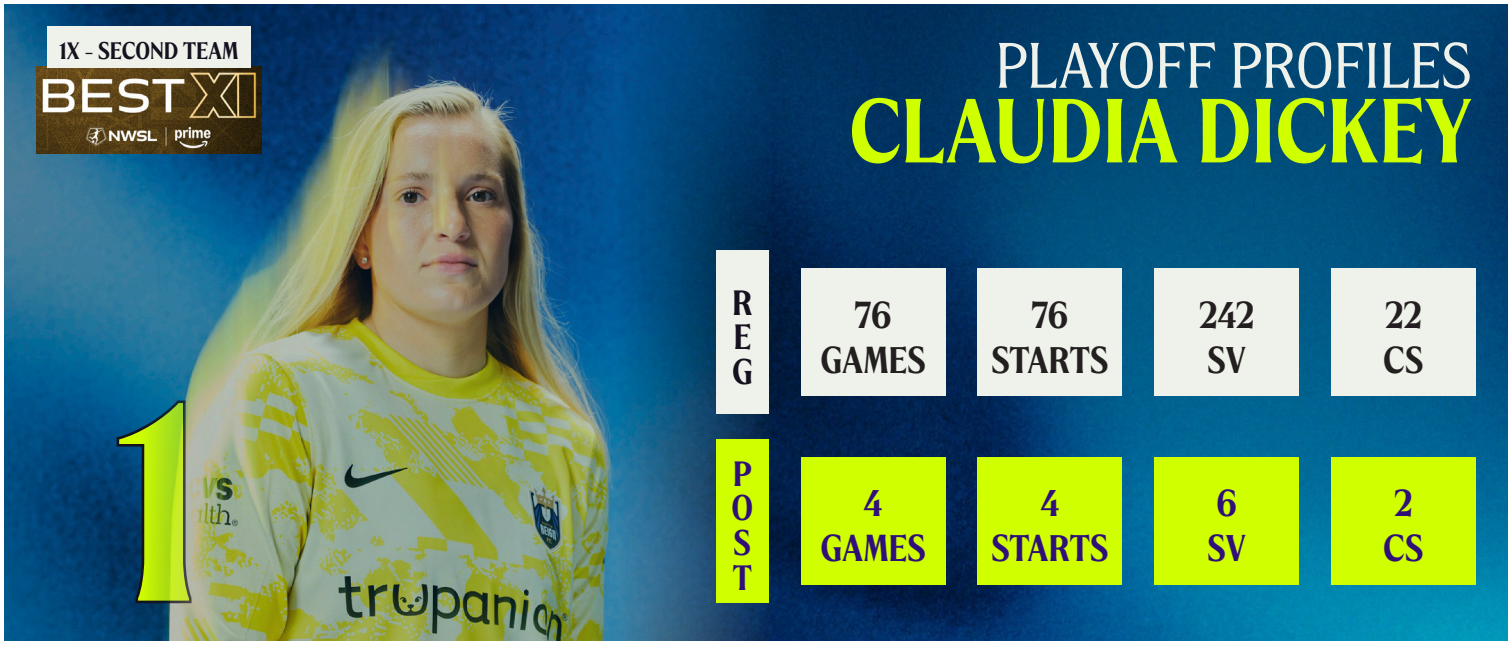

Having spent her entire NWSL career with Reign FC, Fishlock holds club regular season records in goals (52) and assists (31), while ranking second in appearances (232), starts (212) and minutes played (18,348). Throughout her career, Fishlock balanced significant international commitments with the Welsh National Team while helping lead Seattle to three NWSL Shields (2014, 2015, 2022) and three NWSL Championship appearances (2014, 2015, 2023). The 2021 NWSL MVP has also earned five Best XI First Team selections and two Second Team honors.

50+ APPEARANCES , 50+ EXPERIENCES

Six Reign FC players surpassed 50 career NWSL regular season appearances in 2026, marking significant milestones for a young group continuing to establish itself in the league. Five of the six players began their NWSL careers in 2024, while Maddie Dahlien entered the league in 2025. Although the group gained valuable postseason experience last year, they remain in the early stages of their professional careers, developing alongside some of the most experienced figures in NWSL history.

Captain Jess Fishlock ranks fourth in league history with 232 regular season appearances, followed by Sofia Huerta in fifth with 230. Seattle also welcomed another club "OG" back into the fold midway through the season, appointing Lauren Barnes, the NWSL's all-time leader in regular season appearances, as Interim Assistant Coach.

CONSISTENT CLAUDIA

Dickey enters the postseason following back-to-back career-best seasons in clean sheets, recording nine shutouts in 2026 after posting seven in 2025. Earlier this season, the USWNT goalkeeper also became Reign FC's all-time leader in regular season shutouts, surpassing Phallon Tullis-Joyce, and regular season saves, surpassing Hope Solo.

LESLE GALLIMORE

EXPERIENCE

GENERAL MANAGER

LESLE GALLIMORE was named General Manager of Seattle Reign FC on May 31, 2023, overseeing all areas of the club's first team operations. In her first season with Reign FC, the club advanced to the 2023 NWSL Championship.

Gallimore previously served as Commissioner of the Girls Academy (GA) beginning in June 2020, when the development program was first formed. Under Gallimore's leadership, GA became the leading youth development platform for female soccer players throughout the United States. In the first three years of existence, GA developed over 13,000 female athletes in 91 clubs, making an immediate impact towards the growth of the sport in the U.S. Additionally, within the first two years of the GA league's official launch, over 600 players committed to continue their soccer journey at the collegiate level.

Rooted in the Pacific Northwest, Gallimore spent 26 seasons with the University of Washington women's soccer team as the second head coach in program history. From 1994-2019, the former Husky coach won 270 games, made 15 NCAA Tournament appearances, broke numerous records and twice earned Pac-12 Coach of the Year awards (2000 and 2019), becoming one of only five Pac-12 coaches ever to do so. Gallimore worked with several active Reign players, both internationally and collegiately. During her time with the Huskies, Gallimore recruited fourth-year Reign FC defender Shae Holmes and has also worked with former Reign FC defender Lauren Barnes during her coaching tenure with the U.S. U-23 Women's National Team.

Following her coaching career at Washington, Gallimore was inducted into the Washington Youth Soccer Hall of Fame in 2019 in recognition for over 20 years of excellence coaching players on and off the field, joining Seattle Reign Academy Executive Director, Amy Griffin, in this honor.

In 2024, United Soccer Coaches announced Gallimore as the 85th recipient of its Honor Award, recognizing her remarkable service to the association and exceptional contributions to soccer across all levels of the game. Gallimore officially received the award during the annual Awards Ceremony on January 10, 2025 at the United Soccer Coaches Convention in Chicago, IL. Gallimore became the third woman to ever receive this award. In 2018, she spent a year as the President of the United Soccer Coaches organization. The organization was created with the mission of inspiring coaches and igniting their passion for the game, passing it on to players and others in the soccer community. Continuing her mentorship, she has also been in involved in the Empowering Women and Girls through the Sports Diplomacy Program through the U.S. State Department, traveling to Morocco, Ethiopia and Israel all in efforts to support and empower women and girls.

As an inspirational leader, Gallimore was named the first-ever recipient of the Carla Overbeck Leadership Award by U.S. Soccer in March 2023. The honor is given to an individual who demonstrates a unique ability to lead and guide others and who contributes to the success of an initiative that benefits those outside their own organization and places emphasis on collaboration within and among leadership.

A lifelong steward of the game, Gallimore is a coaching mentor as part of U.S. Soccer's SheChampions Mentorship Program. The program seeks to inspire the next generation of female players and coaches through critical representation in the sport. Many notable coaches have participated in this program, including Head Coach Laura Harvey.

In 2016, Gallimore was the first community leader to be honored in the Reign's Legends Campaign. The longtime Reign supporter also broadcasted some of the Reign's matches when the team played at Memorial Stadium.

LAURA HARVEY

HEAD COACH

LAURA HARVEY was named the head coach of Seattle Reign FC on July 15, 2021, after previously serving as the club's first-ever head coach for five consecutive seasons (2013-17). Prior to the 2026 season, Harvey signed a multi-year contract extension on January 13, 2026 to remain in Seattle through the 2028 NWSL season.

Harvey, the winningest head coach in NWSL history, enters her 11th season with Reign FC, having led the club to three NWSL Shields, which is also an all-time record among NWSL head coaches, and three NWSL Championship appearances (2014, 2015, 2023). Harvey holds an all-time NWSL regular season record of 127 wins, 97 losses and 71 draws. On August 25, 2024, Harvey became the first coach in NWSL history to win 100 regular season games after the club defeated the North Carolina Courage 1-0.

Another addition to her list of records, Harvey is a three-time NWSL Coach of the Year (2014, 2015, 2021), the most selections in league history. Harvey is also the first NWSL head coach to win the award on back-to-back occasions. She has led the club to six appearances in the NWSL Playoffs (2014-15, 2021-23, 2025).

Harvey helped Seattle return to the NWSL Playoffs in 2025 after missing it the previous year, which snapped a five-time streak for the club. Throughout the 2025 campaign, Reign FC was just one of four teams to remain in the playoff picture (top 8 teams) all season long.

In 2023, Harvey became the first coach in NWSL history to reach 200 regular season games coached. Despite sending the most players in the NWSL to the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup, she was able to lead the Reign to the No. 1 overall seed of the Challenge Cup. Following the season, Harvey was named 2023 Seattle Sports Leader of the Year, presented by the Seattle Sports Commission Foundation.

The 2022 regular season ended with a seven-game unbeaten streak for Seattle, including three consecutive games on the road that all resulted in wins to help the Reign finish the season with a league-best 40 points and secure its third NWSL Shield. Harvey was named a finalist for NWSL Coach of the Year, her second-consecutive nomination. Throughout the 22-game regular season, Harvey listed 21 different starting XIs as she balanced a busy and challenging schedule that featured up to a league-high nine players being called up for international duty on several occasions and an appearance in The Women's Cup. On August 20, 2022, the Reign claimed the second-ever Women's Cup title after defeating Club América in the semifinals and Racing Louisville FC, the defending champions of the tournament, in the final, due to Harvey's ability to strategically utilize the club's depth throughout the tournament.

Joining Seattle midway through the 2021 season, Harvey managed the club to an eight-game unbeaten streak spanning from August 21 to October 16, allowing the Reign to host a playoff match for the first time since 2015. For all her work throughout the 2021 season, Harvey was named the 2021 NWSL Coach of the Year.

Prior to returning to the Reign and the NWSL, Harvey signed with U.S. Soccer as the Under-20 Women's National Team head coach in January 2020, where she led the U-20s through a seven-game unbeaten run at the 2020 Concacaf Women's U-20 Championship in the Dominican Republic to capture the title. Harvey also served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's National Team during the 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo.

On November 17, 2017, the Utah Royals, in their first run as an expansion club, announced Harvey as the club's first-ever head coach, where she took on a new challenge and fulfilled the role for the inaugural season in 2018 and the following season in 2019. Harvey worked closely in Utah with Scott Parkinson, the Reign's head assistant coach, where he also served as an assistant coach under Harvey.

Before making the move to Utah, the three-time NWSL Coach of the Year was the Reign's first-ever head coach and led the club for five consecutive seasons. From 2013 to 2017, Harvey finished with a regular season record of 51 wins, 33 losses and 26 draws, a .464 winning percentage over 110 regular-season games with the Reign. She led the club to consecutive NWSL Shields and NWSL Championship appearances in 2014 and 2015. Harvey was the first head coach in the league to reach milestones of 200 matches coached and 100 matches coached, as well as the first to notch 100 wins and 50 wins.

Despite a difficult first season in 2013 for the club on the field, Harvey was building a culture of leadership, hard work, and positivity, which quickly began to translate over to on-field success. In 2014, the Reign finished with a league-high 54 points, which is currently the biggest turnaround between seasons in NWSL history, as the club finished with 36 more points than they tallied in 2013. The immediate turnaround helped the club reach its first-ever NWSL Championship appearance and earned Harvey her first selection as NWSL Coach of the Year. The following season, the club continued to excel by recording a league-high 43 points, winning back-to-back NWSL Shields and appearing in back-to-back NWSL Championships. Despite not making the NWSL Playoffs in 2016 and 2017, the club finished fifth in the league in both seasons, falling short of the playoffs by one position.

Under Harvey's leadership, she helped her players earn a combined 34 NWSL Best XI First Team and Second Team selections among 17 different players. The winningest head coach in league history also helped two players earn the title of NWSL Most Valuable Player: midfielder Kim Little (2014) and midfielder Jess Fishlock (2021). Harvey also coached defender Lauren Barnes when she earned NWSL Defender of the Year in 2016.

Born on May 15, 1980, Harvey is originally from Bulkington, a village in Warwickshire, England. She attended George Eliot School in Nuneaton and played football for the Coventry City L.F.C. At the age of 22, she began her coaching career after tearing her ACL while playing for Birmingham City L.F.C. Harvey holds a USSF A Coaching License and a UEFA A Coaching License. She earned her BA in Sports Studies at the University of Wolverhampton in 2001 and her BTEC (Business and Technology Education Council) National Diploma in Sport from Henley College in 1998.

GENERAL INFORMATION

SEATTLE REIGN FC
CLUB HISTORY

Seattle Reign FC, one of the eight inaugural members of the National Women's Soccer League, was founded in 2012 by owners Bill and Teresa Predmore. The club played its first season at Starfire Stadium in Tukwila, Washington, before moving to Memorial Stadium in Seattle in 2014. The club won consecutive NWSL Shields in 2014 and 2015 after finishing at the top of the table both seasons. Head Coach Laura Harvey was named the NWSL Coach of the Year for the 2014 and 2015 seasons. The club missed the playoffs in 2016 and 2017, before returning in 2018, in its first season under head coach Vlatko Andonovski.

On January 30, 2019, the Reign announced that it would begin playing its home matches at Cheney Stadium in Tacoma, Washington. The club reached the NWSL semifinals for a second consecutive season in 2019, before Andonovski departed the club to accept the head coaching position with the U.S. Women's National Team. In November of 2019, it was announced that the Predmores had entered into exclusive negotiations to sell the club to OL Groupe, the parent company of Olympique Lyonnais. The sale was announced on December 19, 2019, with OL Groupe becoming 89.5% owners, the Predmores retaining a 7.5% stake and four-time NBA champion Tony Parker holding a 3.0% stake. In March 2020, the club officially unveiled its new name and crest ahead of the 2020 season - OL Reign.

In 2021, the Reign played its first game at Lumen Field in Seattle, Washington, as part of a first-of-its-kind doubleheader event in partnership with Seattle Sounders FC. Following that event and an inspiring comeback season led by Harvey and Assistant Coach Sam Laity, the team finished in second place in the NWSL standings and competed in an NWSL semifinal match. It was then announced in December 2021 that the team would be making Lumen Field its new home stadium beginning in 2022. Club founders Bill and Teresa Predmore announced prior to the start of the 2022 NWSL season that they would be stepping away from the club in an operating capacity and former Chief Operating Officer, Vincent Berthillot, was appointed CEO.

The Reign played its first-ever regular-season home game at Lumen Field on May 8, 2022. The club went on to break its attendance record on four different occasions throughout the 2022 season, setting the new record at 21,491 fans during the NWSL semifinal against the Kansas City Current on October 23, 2022. The club drew an attendance record of 10,746 fans during its final match of the regular season on October 1 - the same match Reign FC secured its third NWSL Shield for finishing first in the league. At the end of the 2022 NWSL season, Reign FC announced Starfire Sports Complex in Tukwila, WA as its new training facility, just 12 miles away from the club's home stadium.

In April 2023, it was announced that the club was for sale by OL Groupe. The 2023 season featured an all-time league attendance record set by the Reign in the final match of the regular season at Lumen Field when 34,130 fans attended the club's Forever Reign: A Celebration of Megan Rapinoe match. That match also set the league record for broadcast viewership during a regular season game. After finishing the season in fourth place, the Reign advanced through the quarterfinal and semifinal to reach the NWSL Championship for the first time since 2015. On January 9, 2024, it was announced that the Reign would be returning to its roots and rebranding as Seattle Reign FC. This rebrand saw the return of the original crest from 2013, in a refreshed color palette to symbolize the club's historical success.

On June 17, 2024, it was announced that the Ownership Group of Seattle Sounders FC and global investment firm Carlyle joined together to invest in and operate Seattle Reign FC. The blockbuster agreement united the topflight teams in women's and men's professional soccer for the first time in Seattle history, keeping the club firmly rooted in the Pacific Northwest for generations of fans.
