GAME NOTES

MATCH PREVIEW

Gotham FC begins its pursuit of a second consecutive NWSL Championship on Sunday, hosting Seattle Reign FC in the quarterfinals of the 2026 NWSL Playoffs, presented by Google Pixel, at Sports Illustrated Stadium.

Kickoff is set for 12:30 p.m. ET, with ABC and ESPN Deportes carrying the national broadcast. The match will also stream on the ESPN App for unlimited subscribers.

Gotham FC (18-5-7, 61 points) enters the postseason as the No. 1 seed after capturing its first NWSL Shield and setting a club record for points in a regular season. The reigning champions closed out the campaign with a 2-0 victory over Utah Royals FC on Decision Day, securing home-field advantage throughout the playoffs. After winning the 2025 NWSL Championship as the eighth seed, Gotham FC now aims to defend its title from the top of the playoff bracket and claim a third league championship in four seasons.

Seattle Reign FC enters the postseason as the No. 8 seed after securing its playoff berth with a 1-0 victory over the Orlando Pride in its regular season finale. Led by coach Laura Harvey, the Reign will try to reverse their fortunes against Gotham FC after dropping both meetings between the clubs during the 2026 regular season.

Gotham FC swept the season series against Seattle, beginning with a 2-0 victory at Lumen Field on May 15. Jaedyn Shaw opened the scoring in the 24th minute before club captain Tierna Davidson doubled the advantage in the 57th with her first regular season NWSL goal in 2,459 days.

The second meeting produced one of the most dramatic comebacks in Gotham FC history. Trailing 2-0 at halftime following a two-and-a-half-hour weather delay at Icahn Stadium on July 18, Gotham FC rallied behind two late goals from Esther González and a stoppage-time winner from Rose Lavelle to secure a 3-2 victory. González struck in the 81st minute and again in the fourth minute of stoppage time before Lavelle completed the comeback three minutes later. It marked Gotham FC's first regular season victory after trailing by two goals at halftime since 2017, also against Seattle.

Sunday's quarterfinal marks the first postseason meeting between the clubs since the 2023 NWSL Championship, when Gotham FC defeated Seattle 2-1 in San Diego to capture its first league title. Gotham FC enters the matchup with a 12-12-10 all-time record against the Reign across all competitions.

The winner of Sunday's quarterfinal will advance to the NWSL semifinals, moving one step closer to the 2026 NWSL Championship.

MATCH RECAP

It only took eight minutes and 40 seconds for Gotham FC to make a clear statement of intent in the race to claim the NWSL Shield.

Entering Sunday's regular season finale with the inside track to winning the trophy given to the league's regular season champion, Gotham FC immediately put the visiting Utah Royals on the back foot, with Guro Reiten scoring the game-winner in the ninth minute and Jaedyn Shaw adding a second-half insurance goal in a confident 2-0 win at Sports Illustrated Stadium.

Gotham FC secured its fifth major trophy in three years and the No. 1 seed in the 2026 NWSL Playoffs, presented by Google Pixel, ensuring home-field advantage in the quarterfinal and semifinal rounds of the postseason. It will host eighth-seeded Seattle Reign FC for the quarterfinal at 12:30 p.m. ET Sunday at Sports Illustrated Stadium, with ABC carrying the national broadcast.

Gotham FC (18-5-7, 61 points) set club records in wins, points and shutouts this season, clinching the highest postseason seed in club history in the process. The club's previous two NWSL Championships – 2023 and 2025 – were won as the lowest seed in the postseason bracket.

On Sunday, Amorós's squad had a number of paths to the top seed, but the hosts took the clearest route with a dominant performance to finish off the most successful home campaign in club history. Gotham FC tripled Utah's expected goals (1.5-0.5) and touches in the opposition box (29-10), producing three big chances to Utah's zero and controlling 55% of possession.

For her first Gotham FC goal, Reiten got loose on the back post to batter in a low cross from Midge Purce that took a deflection into the Norwegian's path. The timing couldn't have been better: Gotham FC's only challenger for the NWSL Shield – San Diego – scored its go-ahead goal moments before Reiten's finish sent the 11,209 fans on hand into a frenzy.

A welcome sight in the second half, Shaw returned to the field after missing the previous two matches because of a knee injury. Fellow star midfielder Rose Lavelle also returned to action after missing last week's match through a neck injury.

Twenty minutes after coming on, Shaw redirected a whipped-in cross from Purce just inside the back post for her team-leading 11th goal of the season. The 21-year-old Shaw has 16 NWSL goal contributions this year, and the final one of the campaign turned the match at Sports Illustrated Stadium into a party and a coronation.

- The Reign earned just one point from the 12 matches in which they trailed during the 2026 regular season (D1 L11), tied with Orlando for the fewest points recovered from losing positions in the NWSL. Seattle did, however, consistently start matches on the front foot, attempting a league-best 29 more shots than its opponents in the opening 15 minutes of play (66-37).
- Maddie Mercado led Seattle with 10 goals this season, including an NWSL-best five headed goals. Her five headed goals were tied for the third most in a single season in league history, behind only six-goal campaigns by Lindsey Heaps in 2018 and Barbra Banda in 2024. Mercado also had 40 crosses connect with her during the season, seven more than any other player in the NWSL.
