- CRUISING AGAINST CALIFORNIA CLUBS: Seattle completed a stretch against all three California clubs in the NWSL, earning seven of a possible nine points across the three matches. Reign FC defeated San Diego Wave FC on July 26 (2-0) and Bay FC on August 1 (3-2) on the road before returning home to draw Angel City FC, 2-2, tonight. Since the three expansion clubs entered the league – Angel City FC and San Diego in 2022 and Bay FC in 2024 – Reign FC holds a 20-6-7 record against the California sides.
- DYNAMIC DUO: Mia Fishel and Sally Menti each finished the match with a goal and an assist. The last time two Reign FC players recorded a goal and an assist in the same match was June 21, 2025 at Utah Royals FC, when Maddie Dahlien and Ji So-Yun accomplished the feat.

- RUN IT BACK: Head Coach Laura Harvey named the same starting XI for the third consecutive match, following wins over San Diego Wave FC and Bay FC. Through the club's first 17 matches of the season, Harvey has used 14 different starting lineups. Tonight marked the seventh time in club history Seattle has used the same starting XI in three consecutive matches and the first since 2017.
- MIA FISHEL: Mia Fishel assisted Seattle's equalizing goal in the 50th minute before giving Reign FC the lead two minutes later with a goal of her own. Fishel now has three goals this season, all coming in the last four matches, while the assist marked the first of her NWSL career.

- SALLY MENTI: Sally Menti scored the equalizer in the 50th minute before assisting Mia Fishel's go-ahead goal just two minutes later. The goal marked her second of the season and third of her career, while the assist was her first of the season and second of her career.
