FAST FACTS

MATCHUP HISTORY

The Spirit holds a 12-13-8 all-time record in matches played against Seattle Reign FC with a -5 goal differential (40-45). Included in this record is an 11-11-7 regular season record with a -2 goal differential (37-39). Not included in either record is a 0-3 forfeit loss for the Spirit in 2021. Washington is currently on its best win streak against Seattle in club history, winning each of the last three meetings including a 2-1 win at Lumen Field last May. In the past 11 total meetings, the Spirit holds an 8-1-2 record against Seattle, earning the second-most wins in the league against a single opponent across that span. With a win on Sunday, Washington can take the lead in the competitive regular season series with Reign FC for the first time since the series began in 2013.

RUNNING THINGS ON THE ROAD

Washington is unbeaten on the road across its first four away contests this season, earning two wins and two draws. Since the start of the 2025 season, the Spirit holds a stellar 9-2-9 record as the away side with one of the draws being a penalty shootout win in the 2025 NWSL Challenge Cup. Excluding this season's expansion sides, all other clubs in the league have at least five away losses across the same span. When the Spirit visited Reign FC last season, it became just the second team in league history to start a season with a perfect 5-0-0 record on the road.

RED HOT RODMAN

Forward Trinity Rodman totaled three goal contributions with a goal and two assists in last Saturday's road win over Orlando. The star forward has tallied a goal in three straight matches as well, with three assists across those matches. Rodman's six goal contributions in three matches make her the first player in Spirit history to record as many goal contributions in a three-match run.

Five Washington Spirit Players Named to NWSL's Best XI of the Month, presented by Amazon Prime

Washington, D.C. (05/05/2026) - Five Washington Spirit players have been named to the NWSL's Best XI of the Month, presented by Amazon Prime, for their performances during April competition, the league announced today. Following the Spirit's flawless month, nearly half of April's team of the month is made up of players from the District, with no other club having more than one player on the team. Goalkeeper Sandy MacLver, defenders Esme Morgan and Tara Rudd, midfielder Leicy Santos and forward Trinity Rodman all represent the Spirit with the monthly honor.

MacLver makes her first appearance on the monthly Best XI, being named the top goalkeeper in the league for her stellar performance in April. MacLver didn't allow a single goal last month, leading the Spirit to a 3-0-0 record as the side vaulted up to second on the league table. The goalkeeper also set a new club record with four consecutive shutouts, having kept a clean sheet in the Spirit's final match of March as well.

On the back line, center backs Esme Morgan and Tara Rudd also make their debuts on the Best XI of the Month. Morgan and Rudd led a defending third that allowed just five shots on target across the entire month of April en route to three wins and three clean sheets for the Spirit. Both members of the center back duo have also seen all 720 minutes of action for the Spirit through eight matches this season.

In the attacking third, midfielder Leicy Santos makes her debut on the Best XI as well while forward Trinity Rodman earns her fifth such nod. Across three matches in April, Rodman and Santos combined for four goals and one assist with both scoring match-winners in the last two matches of the month. Santos now has three goals and an assist on the season and Rodman sits at three goals and three assists with all...

RECENT SPIRIT MILESTONES

- March 20: Forward Rosemonde Kouassi assisted both Spirit goals, bringing her career regular season tally to eight and moving her up to sixth on the club's all-time assists leaderboard.
- March 20: Midfielder Andi Sullivan made her long-awaited return to the pitch when she subbed on in stoppage time. Sullivan tore her ACL in October 2024 before missing the 2025 season on maternity leave.
- March 25: Midfielder Rebeca Bernal scored her first NWSL goal since transferring to the Spirit prior to the 2025 season.
- March 25: Defender Élisabeth Tsé made her NWSL debut, subbing on late in the second half.
- March 28: The Spirit played Denver Summit FC in front of a league record 63,004 fans at Empower Field at Mile High. Washington has now been involved in three of the last four record-breaking attendances in NWSL history (October 2023 @ Seattle, August 2025 @ Bay, March 2026 @ Denver).
- March 28: Goalkeeper Sandy Maclver recorded her first career regular season clean sheet in a scoreless draw against Denver.
- April 5: Washington improved to 6-0-0 all-time against Bay FC with a 2-0 away win in San Jose.
- April 5: Goalkeeper Sandy Maclver recorded her second straight clean sheet in the 2-0 win against Bay FC.
- April 24: Midfielder Leicy Santos tallied her first brace with the Spirit, scoring in each half of the team's 4-0 home win over Kansas City.
- April 24: Forward Trinity Rodman provided the game-winning assist on Leicy Santos' goal in the 25th minute before scoring an insurance goal in first half stoppage time. This was the sixth match of Rodman's NWSL career with a goal and assist.
- April 24: Forward Claudia Martínez scored her first NWSL goal in the 75th minute, adding the Spirit's fourth and final goal of the night. Martínez became the youngest regular season goal scorer in Spirit history in the process.
- April 24: Goalkeeper Sandy Maclver recorded her third straight clean sheet in the 4-0 win against the Current.
- April 29: Forward Trinity Rodman scored her 30th career regular season goal, the match-winner against Louisville.
- April 29: Goalkeeper Sandy Maclver and the Spirit kept their fourth consecutive clean sheet, setting a new club record.
- May 2: Forward Sofia Cantore tallied the fastest brace from kickoff in NWSL history with two goals in 5:27.
- May 2: With her first assist of the evening, forward Trinity Rodman became the youngest player in NWSL regular season history to record at least 30 goals and 20 assists in her career.
