POSTGAME NOTES: REIGN FC VS. GOTHAM FC

SEATTLE REIGN FC 0
GOTHAM FC 2

Lumen Field – Friday, May 15, 2026 – 4:00 p.m. PT – Attendance: 6,406

- DIFFERENT XI: Laura Harvey has fielded a different starting XI in each of its nine matches during the 2026 season. Tonight's match featured three changes to the lineup from last week's match against the Washington Spirit, with Emeri Adames, Angharad James-Turner and Shae Holmes replacing Madison Curry, Ainsley McCammon and Maddie Mercado. Five Reign FC players have started all nine games – Claudia Dickey, Sam Meza and defenders Sofia Huerta, Emily Mason and Phoebe McClernon.
- JORDYN BUGG: Jordyn Bugg made her 2026 season debut tonight as a second-half substitute in the 72nd minute. The 2025 NWSL Defender of the Year finalist missed the club's first eight matches due to injury.
- SOFIA HUERTA: Sofia Huerta made her 100th regular season appearance for Reign FC tonight, becoming the sixth player in club history to reach the milestone. The 12th-year defender is now one start shy of becoming the fifth player in NWSL history to record 200 regular season starts.
- PHOEBE McCLERNON: Phoebe McClernon made her 100th NWSL regular season appearance tonight. Since debuting in 2021, the defender has appeared in 79 regular season matches with Seattle and 21 with the Orlando Pride.
- SERIES: With tonight's result, Reign FC now holds a record of 12-11-10 against Gotham FC across all competitions.
- UP NEXT: Reign FC (3-4-2, 11 points) begins a three-game road stretch on Friday, May 22 with its first-ever meeting against Boston Legacy FC (2-5-3, 9 points) at Centreville Bank Stadium (5:00 p.m. PT / Prime Video, 950 KJR AM).
