games at CPKC Stadium.

Only one player has scored more regular season goals in a single venue in NWSL history: Christine Sinclair (41) at Providence Park. Marta has scored 27 goals at Inter&Co Stadium.

Chawinga has scored 28 regular season goals at CPKC Stadium – opponents have scored a combined 32 goals. She has contributed to 40 goals (31 goals, nine assists) in her 36 matches at CPKC Stadium across all competitions.

DEBINHA DOMINATION ... Debinha made history on Aug. 8 as she became the NWSL's all-time leading goal scorer across all competitions* with 83 career goals. That broke the previous record of 82 held by Lynn Biyendolo. She has 59 regular season goals, four playoff goals, 12 Challenge Cup goals, four Fall Series goals and four Summer Cup goals.

 Does NOT include non-NWSL competitions (international friendlies, international matches, Women's Cup, Teal Rising Cup, Concacaf W Champions Cup, FIFA Champions Cup, ICC or pre-season games).*

The Brazilian superstar is also one of just two players to score in every possible NWSL competition, along with Christine Sinclair.

Debinha is tied for fifth all-time for leading scorers in the NWSL regular season with 59 goals. She's behind Sam Kerr (79), Lynn Biyendolo (70), Christine Sinclair (66) and Alex Morgan (60), and is tied with Ashley Hatch (59).

Debinha is tied for third among active leading scorers in the NWSL regular season with 59, trailing only Sam Kerr (79), Lynn Biyendolo (70) and tied with Ashley Hatch (59).

Debinha has had five career regular season braces (three with Kansas City and two with North Carolina). She has had five direct free kick goals across all competitions, which ranks third all-time.

With 59 goals and 26 assists on her resume, no other player has recorded more goal contributions in regular season NWSL play than Debinha since her league debut in 2017.

She became the fifth player in NWSL history to hit the 50 goal-25 assist milestone, and the second active player along with Lynn Biyendolo. Also on the list is Alex Morgan (60g, 28a), Jess McDonald (54g, 31a) and Megan Rapinoe (51g, 26a).

Debinha became the sixth player in NWSL history to join the 40 goal-20 assist club. She is one of four active players to hit that milestone alongside Sam Kerr, Lynn Biyendolo and Jess Fishlock. Alex Morgan (60g, 28a), Jess McDonald (54g, 31a) and Megan Rapinoe (51g, 26a) have also reached that milestone.

On July 3, Debinha became just the third player in NWSL history to reach 100 regular season careers wins, joining Jess Fishlock and Lauren Barnes. On Aug. 1, she became the first Brazilian in NWSL history to make 150 regular season starts.

Debinha scored the game-winner on July 29, 2026, to become the third player in NWSL history with 20+ regular season game-winning goals behind Lynn Biyendolo (23) and Ashley Hatch (21). Her 19th career regular season game-winning goal was on Sept. 20, 2025, which clinched the Shield for Kansas City.

She has scored 8+ goals in five of her eight completed NWSL regular seasons between NC and KC.

HATS OFF TO YOU ... History was made on May 10 vs. Chicago at CPKC Stadium, as Temwa Chawinga recorded the first regular season hat trick in club history. It was the 33rd regular season hat trick in NWSL history, and the first during the 2026 season. Her goals in the 22nd, 47th and 50th minute marked the eighth fastest regular season hat trick in league history.

Chawinga's three-goal performance was the third hat trick in club history, and second during NWSL play. Kristen Hamilton had a hat trick in an NWSL Challenge Cup match against Houston on July 22, 2023. Haley Hopkins also had a hat trick vs. SE Palmeiras on April 12, 2026, in the Teal Rising Cup.

TWICE AS NICE ... On July 29 vs. Louisville at CPKC Stadium, Haley Hopkins and Debinha both recorded braces. It was the second time in club history that two players recorded braces in the same regular season match. The first time was on April 20, 2024, vs. Bay at CPKC Stadium from Temwa Chawin- ga and Bia Zaneratto.

FIFA U-20 WORLD CUP ... Katie

Scott has been named to the 21-player U.S. U-20 Women's National Team roster for the 2026 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup, which takes place in Poland from Sept. 5-27.

The U.S. U-20 WNT will compete in Group D along with Italy, Japan and New Zealand.

A regular in the U.S. Youth National Team circuit, Scott has been a key part of the U-20 team for nearly two years. She helped the USA qualify for the U-20 World Cup after their top four finish at the 2025 Concacaf U-20 Championship in Costa Rica in June 2025. Scott scored a goal and donned the captain's band during a group stage match.

Scott first hit the international scene with the U.S. U-15 National Team, helping that squad win the 2022 Concacaf U-15 Championship before leading the U-16 crew to the French Mondial World Cup title the following year. Scott then earned gold at the 2024 Concacaf U-17 Championship and bronze at the 2024 FIFA U-17 World Cup. Her first international goal came against Panama in the opening match of the Concacaf U-17 Championship.

Scott is one of 13 NWSL players on this U.S. roster.

ASSIST QUEEN ... Croix Bethune

has 21 regular season career assists, the most in the league since she made her debut at the start of the 2024 season. She has averaged 0.49 assists per 90 minutes in her career, by far the best among players to play 3,000+ minutes in NWSL history (Tobin Heath - 0.37, Lauren Holiday - 0.37).

Bethune has provided the most regular season assists in the NWSL since the start of the 2025 season with 11.

On Aug. 8, Bethune notched her 20th career regular season assist, the 20th player in league history to hit that mark. She was also the second youngest player to reach 20 behind Trinity Rodman, and the second fastest player to do so. Bethune reached it in 56 games; Tobin Heath did so in 54 games.

On May 24, Bethune recorded her 15th career regular season assist in what was her 48th career regular season match. That's tied for the fourth fewest games in league history to hit that mark.

Bethune had two assists on July 3, her third career regular season multi-assist performance and her first as a member of the KC Current, in what was her 50th career regular season appearance. Her 17 assists are tied for the most by any player in their first 50 NWSL appearances along with Kim Little, Tobin Heath and Lauren Holiday, who had 17 assists in 48 career matches.

Only two players in league history have ever recorded 10 assists in a single regular season: Tobin Heath (Portland, 2016) and Croix Bethune (Washington, 2024).

WAFCON 2026 ... Temwa Chawinga represented Malawi at WAFCON 2026, held in Morocco from July 26 to Aug. 16. Malawi entered the event ranked No. 153 in the world and went on a historic run.

The Scorchers started group stage play on July 28 with a 3-2 win over 10-time champion Nigeria, with Chawinga bagging a brace. Malawi then beat Egypt, 3-1, on Aug. 1 with Chawinga scoring a goal and recording a goal. Malawi then lost to Zambia, 2-1, on Aug. 5. However, Malawi still won Group C.

The Scorchers then beat Ghana, 2-1, in the quarterfinals on Aug. 9 to officially punch their ticket to the 2027 FIFA World Cup next summer in Brazil. Chawinga had a goal and an assist in that match. The team then topped Ghana, 2-1, in the semifinals to secure a spot in Aug. 16's WAFCON final. Chawinga had a goal in the semifinal.

Bethune totaled one goal and four assists across the five-game slate in July. She had her third career multi-assist match on July 3 during a 3-0 win at Denver. She then had a goal and an assist in a 2-2 draw with San Diego on July 17, the third time in her career she achieved the feat. She then added an assist in a 5-1 rout of Louisville on July 29.

She also leads the team in shots (38), shots on target (22), chances created (26) and tackles won (25).

THE LO-DOWN ... Midfielder Lo'eau

LaBonta solidified herself as one of the league's all-time greats from the penalty spot last year. She ranks second in NWSL history for regular season penalties scored with 14, tied with Megan Rapino. She is one behind Marta's record of 15. LaBonta is 14-of-17 from the spot in her career, all for Kansas City. She has converted 11 of her last 13 penalty attempts (regular season and playoffs).

LaBonta became the second player in KC Current history (and 31st player in NWSL history) with 20 goals for the same club. She also became the 33rd player in NWSL history to score 25 regular season career goals. She has 10 NWSL Best XI honors – tied for second all-time.

On Aug. 14, she became the 20th player in NWSL history to reach 15,000 regular season minutes. On Aug. 22, she became the 10th player to reach 200 regular season appearances.

LaBonta earned her first USWNT call-up in May 2025. She made her first appearance for the Stars and Stripes on May 31, becoming the oldest player to debut for the USWNT in the program's 40-year history. She also subbed in during the second match on June 3. She then was added to the USWNT roster during the October FIFA window and subbed in during two matches.

UNSUNG HERO ... Veteran Vanessa DiBernardo is no stranger to the NWSL record book. She reached 15,000 regular season minutes played during the season opener vs. Portland on March 15, 2025, becoming the 12th player in league history to hit that mark. She then became the first player in NWSL history to take 400 career corner kicks on May 24, 2025, at Chicago.

The June 7, 2025, match at Gotham was DiBernardo's 200th regular season appearance. She became the fifth player in league history to reach that milestone along with Lauren Barnes, McCall Zerboni, Christine Sinclair and Jess Fishlock. DiBernardo became the second youngest player to reach that mark: She was 33.06 years old. Zerboni (age 32.73) was the youngest player to hit 200, followed by Barnes (age 34.02), Fishlock (age 38.18) and Sinclair (age 41.39).

On July 29, 2026, a 5-1 win over Louisville marked DiBernardo's 100th career regular season win. She is the fourth player in league history to hit that mark, along with Lauren Barnes, Jess Fishlock and Debinha.

DiBernardo has 31 career regular season assists, which is tied for second all-time in NWSL history. That record is owned by Sofia Huerta (35).

DiBernardo gave birth to her daughter, Charlie Mae, in January 2026. She returned from maternity leave in July and made her first start since giving birth in August.

MADAM PRESIDENT ... Haley

Hopkins enters her second year as the president of the NWSL Players Association (NWSLPA). Hopkins took over for Tori Huster, who moved into a deputy executive director role alongside executive director Meghann Burke. Hopkins is the fourth NWSLPA President in the organization's history.

Hopkins is the first NWSLPA President in Kansas City Current history and is largely responsible for making governing decisions on the behalf of all NWSL players. Hopkins previously served as an NWSLPA player representative, one of two elected by each NWSL team, with the North Carolina Courage.

In August 2025, Hopkins was accepted to the Harvard Business School Fall 2025 Crossover Into Business Program, a semester-long program that helps professional athletes develop business skills for during and after their careers, matching them with MBA student mentors for case study discussions and business education tailored to their interests.

#TEMVP ... Temwa Chawinga is the back-to-back Golden Boot winner and MVP, bringing home both awards in 2024 and 2025. She was named to the Best XI First Team both years, too.

Entering Week 15, Chawinga ranks second on the Golden Boot leaderboard with nine goals and two assists. She was the Player of the Month and named to the Best XI in May.

Chawinga is the first player in NWSL history to be named MVP in consecutive years. She joins Sam Kerr (2017, 2019) as the only players in league history to win MVP multiple times. Chawinga is also the second player in NWSL history to win the Golden Boot multiple times, joining Sam Kerr who won it three straight years from 2017-19.

Chawinga scored 20 regular season goals in 2024 and 15 in 2025. She is the second player in NWSL history to have consecutive seasons with 15+ goals, joining Sam Kerr (2017, 2018, 2019).

Chawinga has scored at least once in 38 of her 59 regular season appearances, with 15 of those goals being game-winners. She has scored 49 goals in 65 appearances across all competitions, with 18 of those goals being game-winners. That's more game-winners than any other player since she joined the NWSL last season.

She has scored at least once in 38 of her 59 career regular season matches (64.4%), by far the highest rate in NWSL history among players with 20 or more appearances (Sam Kerr – 48.7%).

Chawinga made history on May 10 vs. Chicago when she recorded the first regular season hat trick in club history. It was the first hat trick of the 2026 NWSL regular season, and the 33rd in NWSL regular season history. Her goals in the 22nd, 47th and 50th minute marked the eighth fastest regular season hat trick in league history. She was named the NWSL Week 7 Player of the Week for her performances.

She then followed that performance up with a brace on May 15 vs. Houston, making it a five-goal week. It was her fourth career regular season brace, and her fifth career regular season multi-goal game. She matched the league record for goals in back-to-back games (5 goals in 2 games).

The forward was named the Sports Personality of the Year and Sports Woman of the Year for Malawi in January 2026. She was also nominated for the 2025 CAF Women's Player of the Year. Last summer, she earned her first Ballon d'Or nomination and finished 17th in the final standings.

Chawinga was nominated for a 2026 ESPY Award for Best Soccer Player. She was nominated along with Lionel Messi, Ousmane Dembélé and Alexia Putellas.

On June 22, the Current announced that Chawinga had signed a contract extension through the 2029 season. She is the Current's High Impact Player.

SHE'S A KEEPER ... Lorena had a dominant NWSL debut season in 2025. She was named the NWSL Goalkeeper of the Year – the first in club history – and was named to the NWSL Best XI First Team. She was also tabbed to the NWSL Best XI of the Month in March and June.

Lorena set several NWSL and club records last season:

- NWSL record for most shutouts (14)

Lorena finished the 2025 regular season ranked first in the NWSL with her league-record 14 clean sheets. Her .827 save percentage at the end of the regular season also ranked first among goalkeepers who started double-digit games this season. Her six saves at Utah on Aug. 8 is her single-season high.

On May 10, Lorena's became the 14th goalkeeper in NWSL history to record 15 regular season shutouts with one club. She then had another clean sheet on May 15 and May 30.

On May 24, Lorena became the 14th goalkeeper in NWSL history to reach 25 regular season wins with one club.

MOST AMBITIOUS ... Kansas City was named the The Most Ambitious NWSL Club for three consecutive seasons by ESPN. Criteria for the rankings include key factors of the willingness of franchise owners to invest in their teams on and off the field.

The Current also checked in at No. 2 on Sportico's 2026 NWSL Valuations Rankings with a valuation of $315 million. The average NWSL team is worth $184 million. Kansas City generated the most revenue at $42.9 million in 2025.

The Current was also ranked No. 1 on the NWSL Midseason Social Rankings. The club's social content generated 1.8 million engagements, over 400,000 more than the next closest club.

KC CURRENT STUDIOS ... On Aug. 3, the KC Current officially opened KC Current Studios, located at Current Landing right next to CPKC Stadium. This marks the club's next chapter in the continued investment in women's sports, innovation and storytelling.

KC Current Studios is a first-of-its-kind production and broadcasting facility dedicated to creating original content, live broadcasts, podcasts, interviews and community programming that amplifies the voices of athletes, fans and leaders shaping the future of sports. KC Current Studios includes a photo studio, podcast recording studio, video/broadcast studio, and a production control room, allowing it to be the hub of content created from KC Current, CPKC Stadium and Current Landing.

TED LASSO ... The KC Current and Apple TV hosted Ted Lasso Night at CPKC Stadium on July 11. The event celebrated the new season of Ted Lasso with special appearances, exclusive giveaways and limited-edition merchdise, followed by an international soccer watch party.

The Ted Lasso cast had a press conference during the event at CPKC Stadium. Brendan Hunt, who plays Coach Beard, praised the stadium, saying "it feels like a diamond on a ring." Juno Temple, who plays Keeley Jones, wore her Teal Town Kit and said "I left feeling better than when I arrived" when reflecting on her first visit to the stadium.

Ted Lasso season four premiere aired on Aug. 5. The first episode was filmed over several weeks in Kansas City, with a key scene filmed at CPKC Stadium. There, the main characters watched a KC Current match, which sets up the entire new season with Ted Lasso as coach of the newly created AFC Richmond women's team.

"It is a little bit proof of concept," co-owner Angie Long told ESPN. "Everything that we've built, even a show like 'Ted Lasso' is seeing it. So, I think it's endorsement. But again, what it means for sport, for women's soccer is huge."

PITCH(SIDE) PERFECT ... On May 13, 2025, the Kansas City Current announced a historic partnership with Pitchside Coffee as a restaurant partner at CPKC Stadium. Pitchside Coffee was founded in 2024 by two current KC Current players, Elizabeth Ball and Vanessa DiBernardo, along with four former players: Kristen Hamilton, Hailie Mace, Desiree Scott and Mallory Weber. They officially opened a storefront in KC's Crossroads District on Aug. 31, 2025.

Pitchside Coffee is the first player-owned vendor to be permanently featured inside a NWSL or women's sports venue. It is also the only food or beverage vendor in an American professional sports venue owned and founded by active professional athletes. Among other beverages, one unique menu item available at each home match is a specialty latte inspired by a KC Current player, which changes each home game.

CPKC STADIUM EXPANSION ... On June 30, the KC Current unveiled its plans to increase the capacity of CPKC Stadium to 18,000. Kansas City Mayor Quinton Lucas proposed a TIF district and up to $235 million in bonds to help finance the renovation and the surrounding development earlier in June.

Rather than building a new upper deck, the team intends to add the bulk of the 6,500 additional seats in the corners between the grandstands that currently flank the pitch and raise the roof line to add more premium boxes along the top of the stadium, roughly doubling the suite capacity. The project would also connect the second-level concourse between the east and west sections while preserving a view of the bridge.

The team expects to complete the vast majority of the construction outside the NWSL season, likely beginning in the fall of 2027 in hopes of finishing in time for the 2031 FIFA Women's World Cup, which is set to be hosted by the United States along with Costa Rica, Jamaica and Mexico.

The Current became the first team in NWSL history to sell out all of its home matches that year and now have a season-ticket base of around 8,000.

COMMUNITY COMMITMENT ... On May 27, the Kansas City Current, alongside U.S. Soccer, Kansas City Parks & Recreation and the Kansas State Youth Soccer Association, announced a historic commitment to youth sports in Kansas City with the launch of a youth soccer league at the 9th & Van Brunt Athletic Fields. Having begun play on July 10, the league serves community groups across the Kansas City metropolitan area and come at no cost to participating teams and coaches.

The league is focused on growing youth soccer participation — especially among girls — while delivering structured education for coaches and referees and empowering community-based organizations and assets. The no-cost, no-barrier league will offer recreational opportunities for local soccer players to experience the game of soccer in a safe and supportive environment. The league will also create pathways for coaches and referees through development and training.

U.S. Soccer provided a multi-year grant to implement the league through Innovate to Grow. Reinforcing the belief that soccer can be a powerful tool for societal change, Innovate to Grow provides financial support to organizations expanding the referee pipeline, increasing youth soccer participation in meaningful and sustainable ways and creating safe, accessible places to play.

WORLD CUP IN KC ... The KC Current and the Royal Dutch Football Association announced in mid-February that the Netherlands would operate out of the Kansas City Current Training Facility in Riverside, Mo., during 2026 FIFA Men's World Cup. The Current's training grounds served as the Dutch Men's National Team's home base and official team headquarters throughout their World Cup run.

Netherlands captain Virgil van Dijk praised the KC Current training facility as "incredible" during a press conference, stating "I just hope that all the pitches are going to be as good as today... the facilities are incredible for us to train."

The city of Kansas City's TV ratings for World Cup final, and the entire tournament, were far and away No. 1. Kansas City had an average 4.89 rating and 20 share per match, according to Fox Sports. A distant No. 2 on the list was Boston and Austin with 3.91 ratings.

Fox Sports reported that Spain's 1-0 win over Argentina in the World Cup final had 38,397,000 viewers. Kansas City ranked No. 1 with a massive 17.56 rating and 51 share. That means more than half the televisions in KC were tuned to the game.

KC CURRENT II ... On August 4, 2025, the Kansas City Current formally launched its second team, Kansas City Current II. With the establishment of Current II, the Current became the first NWSL club to fully form a second team. The creation of the second team is further testament to the Current's long-term commitment to player development, performance excellence and becoming the preeminent women's football club in the world.

Kansas City Current II is a full-time, fully funded team that partners with the Kansas City Current to build the future of women's soccer. The launch of Current II bridges youth and college players to top-tier soccer, reinforcing the club's vision of a complete development pathway from grassroots to professional.

Under the direction of KC Current II head coach Vasil Ristov, the second team mirrors the first team in terms of training and periodization through training sessions, resources, matches and friendlies. Current II has a fully dedicated staff, nutritional support, a designated strength and conditioning program, facilities and more.

KC Current II plays at Riverside Stadium, a 2,000-seat outdoor venue in Riverside, Mo., featuring a FIFA certified, heated grass pitch and fan amenities.

KC Current II won the WPSL Heartland Division, WPSL Midwest Conference Championship, WPSL Central Regional Championship and the WPSL Championship in 2026. Current II became the second team from the state of Missouri to win the WPSL Championship in the league's 29-year history. Riverside Stadium hosted the WPSL Championship.

HB KØGE WOMEN ... Ballard Capital, an investment company controlled and owned by Kansas City Current co-founders and co-owners Angie and Chris Long, signed an agreement to purchase HB Køge Women in May 2025. The acquisition is a continuation of the Longs' unwavering commitment to investing in women's soccer at the highest level while raising the bar for players, supporters and communities both nationally and internationally.

Located approximately 30 minutes south of Copenhagen in Køge, HB Køge plays in the highest level of women's football in Denmark organized by the Danish Football Association (DBU). HB Køge won the Kvindeliga three straight seasons in 2021, 2022, and 2023, having also competed in the UEFA Women's Champions League in 2021, 2022, and 2023.

2025 SHIELD WINNERS ... On Sept. 20, 2025, the Kansas City Current won the NWSL Shield with its 2-0 win over Seattle Reign FC as well as Washington Spirit's 1-1 draw with Angel City FC.

2025 NWSL Shield notables:

Lo'eau LaBonta, a dynamic midfielder and captain for Kansas City, has been a cornerstone of the club since its inception in 2021. Initially drafted by Sky Blue FC in 2015, she later played for FC Kansas City and the Utah Royals before returning to Kansas City with the Current. On Nov. 6, 2025, she signed a three-year contract extension to keep her with the club through the 2028 season. LaBonta has over 120 appearances for the KC Current with more than 10,000 minutes across all competitions. She has recorded 21 goals and seven assists in the regular season with the Current. LaBonta solidified herself as the league's all-time great from the penalty spot on Sept. 26, 2025, when she converted her 14th career regular season PK. That moved her up to be tied with Megan Rapinoe for first in NWSL history for most regular season PKs. With 180, she is one of 50 players in NWSL history with over 150 regular season appearances and became the 26th player to ever make 150 career regular season starts.

1998-07 Chicago Fire
1998-05 U.S. Men's National Team

Chris Armas was named head coach of the Kansas City Current on Jan. 7, 2026. Armas, who was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2025, brings with him over three decades of playing and coaching experience at the highest level of the sport.

Armas' coaching career began in 2008 as an assistant for Chicago Fire FC before spending four years as the head women's soccer coach at Adelphi University, his alma mater, from 2011-14. Under his direction, Adelphi had back-to-back Northeast 10 (NE10) Tournament final appearances in 2012 and 2013, earned its first NCAA Tournament berth in six years in 2013 and rose as high as ninth in the national rankings in 2014. Armas, who produced 20 All-Conference and six All-Region selections during his time with the Panthers, was recognized as the United Soccer Coaches Regional Coaching Staff of the Year and the NE10 Conference Coaching Staff of the Year in 2013.

In 2015, he joined the New York Red Bulls as an assistant coach and the team won the Supporters' Shield that year. Armas was appointed the Red Bulls' head coach in July 2018, finishing the regular season with a 12-3-3 record as the club won the 2018 Supporters' Shield and advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals. He was then an assistant coach for Manchester United (2021-22) and Leeds United (2023) in the English Premier League, even serving as co-interim head coach of Leeds United. Most recently, Armas was the head coach of the Colorado Rapids in Major League Soccer (MLS) during the 2024 and 2025 seasons. He led the Rapids back to the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs in 2024 and earned a third-place finish in the 2025 Leagues Cup while capturing back-to-back Rocky Mountain Cup titles.

Regarded as the best American defensive midfielder of his generation, Armas had a successful 12-year playing career in the MLS with LA Galaxy in 1996-97 and Chicago Fire FC from 1998 until his retirement in 2007. He amassed 12 goals and 48 assists across 264 MLS matches and won the 1998 MLS Cup, 2003 Supporters' Shield and four Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cups (1998, 2000, 2003, 2006). The Brentwood, New York native is one of only five players in league history to have been named to the MLS Best XI five times (1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2003) and he is a six-time MLS All-Star (1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004). In 2003, he was named the MLS Comeback Player of the Year after recovering from a season-ending injury sustained in 2002. He was also chosen as Chicago Fire FC's MVP during their Shield-winning season that same year.

Armas earned 66 caps and scored two goals for the United States Men's National Team (USMNT) between 1998 and 2005, and he was tabbed the U.S. Soccer Male Player of the Year in 2000. He was a key member of the USMNT squads that qualified for the 2002 and 2006 FIFA World Cups – captaining the team on four occasions during those cycles – but untimely injuries kept him out of both World Cups as well as the 2000 Olympic Games.

A 1994 graduate of Adelphi, Armas earned All-America honors and helped guide the Panthers to three straight NCAA Tournament appearances. He was a two-time All-New York State honoree and led the roster in scoring with 17 points as a senior. After college, Armas spent two years playing for the Long Island Rough Riders in the U.S. Interregional Soccer League (USISL) and was a USISL All-Star for guiding his team to the 1995 Pro League Championship. He was selected to be part of the inaugural class of the Long Island Soccer Football League Hall of Fame in 2013.

Armas and his wife, Justine, have two sons: Christopher and Aleksei.
