CURRENTLY

- Kansas City is looking for its first regular season win at Seattle in club history. The team won the 2022 NWSL Semifinals vs. OL Reign at Lumen Field.
- Izzy Rodriguez recorded her 12th career regular season assist on Sunday to become the outright club record holder, breaking the tie of 11 she shared with Hailie Mace. Rodriguez led the league in 2025 with six regular season assists.
- Izzy Rodriguez has assisted 11 different players since her debut in 2022, with only Sam Coffey and María Sánchez (12 each) having set up more different teammates for goals.
- Haley Hopkins scored the club's lone goal on Sunday in Chicago. It was her sixth career regular season goal, and her first scored as a substitute.
- Debinha's next assist will make her the first NWSL player to record 20 goals/20 assists (regular season) with two different clubs (NC: 2017-22, KC: 2023-present). It will also make her the first in club history with 10 goals/10 assists (regular season).
- The Current is 19-14-5 all-time in regular season games played on the West Coast, including 14-1-1 since the start of the 2024 campaign.
- The Kansas City Current was recently named The Most Ambitious Club for the third consecutive year by ESPN.

Last Time Out

34' Kansas City – Debinha (PK)
 74' Kansas City – Chawinga

KC VS. SEA ... The last time Kansas City and Seattle met was Sept. 20, 2025, at CPKC Stadium for a 2-0 KC Current shutout. Debinha put the Current ahead from the penalty spot in the 34th minute and Temwa Chawinga's header sealed the victory in the 74th minute. The win sealed the NWSL Shield for the Current, the first in club history.

Two KC Current rookies, Kelsey Branson and Kolo Suliafu, are returning to the state they spent their college careers in. Both played for the University of Washington and led the Huskies to their first-ever Big Ten Tournament Championship in 2025 as seniors.

The Current acquired Alana Cook in a trade from the Seattle Reign in Summer 2024. She started her pro career with Paris Saint-Germain in 2019 before going on loan to OL Reign in 2020, a move that was made permanent in 2021. During her tenure in Seattle, Cook made 84 appearances and was named to the NWSL Best XI and a finalist for the NWSL Defender of the Year in 2021 and 2022.

Sporting Director Vlatko Andonovski also has Seattle ties. He was the head coach of Reign FC during the 2018 and 2019 seasons prior to taking over the helm of the U.S. Women's National Team. Following the conclusion of the Reign's 2019 season, he was tabbed the NWSL Coach of the Year. Andonovski succeeded Laura Harvey as Seattle's head coach; Harvey later returned to the club in 2021. Andonovski and Harvey are the two winningest coaches in league history.

LAST TIME OUT ... Kansas City fell to Chicago Stars FC, 2-1, on March 22 in the first road test of the season. The Stars scored in the 42nd and 50th minutes before forward Haley Hopkins pulled one back in the 57th minute off an assist from defender Izzy Rodriguez.

Last Match Notables:

- Haley Hopkins scored her sixth career regular season goal
- Haley Hopkins scored her first career goal off the bench
- Izzy Rodriguez recorded her 12th career regular season assist
- Izzy Rodriguez is now the outright club record holder with 12 regular season assists

MOST AMBITIOUS ... Kansas City was named the The Most Ambitious NWSL Club for three consecutive seasons by ESPN. Criteria for the rankings include key factors of the willingness of franchise owners to invest in their teams on and off the field.

The Current also checked in at No. 2 on Sportico's 2026 NWSL Valuations Rankings with a valuation of $315 million. The average NWSL team is worth $184 million. Kansas City generated the most revenue at $42.9 million in 2025.

NEW FACES ... The Current added several new faces during the offseason:

- Croix Bethune (M) – Enters her third year in the NWSL, signed through 2027. Acquired via trade with Washington Spirit for $900,000 in intra-league transfer funds and $100,000 in allocation funds.
- Kelsey Branson (M) – Signed a short-term contract through April 20, 2026, after being a non-rostered training player during preseason.
- Meila Brewer (D) – Rookie out of UCLA, signed through 2028. Is the third youngest active player in the NWSL at 16 years old.
- Katie Cappelletti (GK) – Enters her second year in the NWSL, short-term contract through May 31.
- Kyra Carusa (F) – Enters her eighth year as a pro (fourth in NWSL), on loan from HB Køge Women in Denmark.
- Marisa Jordan (GK) – Enters her fifth season in the NWSL, signed through 2027. Acquired via trade with North Carolina Courage for a 2026 international roster spot.
- Penelope Hocking (F) – Enters her fourth season in the NWSL. Acquired via trade with Bay FC for $350,000 in intra-league transfer funds. Signed through 2028 with a team option for 2029.
- Gianna Paul (F) – Rookie out of the University of Alabama, signed through 2028 with a team option for 2029.

SENTNOR BELIEVES ... Ally Sentnor returned from international duty the other week after playing for the USWNT at the 2026 SheBelieves Cup. The U.S. won its eighth SheBelieves Cup title. Sentnor subbed in during the first match and started the final two games of the tournament.

Sentnor scored the game-winner in the 55th minute during a 1-0 victory over Canada in the second SheBelieves Cup match on March 4. It was her seventh career international goal, and her team-leading third of 2026.

She now has seven goals and three assists in 18 caps with nine starts. She was named the 2024 U.S. Soccer Young Female Player of the Year.

MILESTONE WATCH ... A couple of milestones could happen this season for several Kansas City players:

- 100 regular season wins for Debinha (currently at 98)

- 100 regular season appearances for Izzy Rodriguez (currently at 87)
- 100 regular season appearances for Kayla Sharples (currently at 84)
- 200 regular season appearances for Lo'eau LaBonta (currently at 181)
- 100 regular season wins for Vanessa DiBernardo (currently at 99)
- 15,000 regular season minutes for Lo'eau LaBonta (currently at 13,615)

DEBINHA DOMINATION ... Debinha finished the 2025 regular season with eight goals and an assist, which was tied for sixth on the Golden Boot leaderboard. She has scored 8+ goals in five of her eight NWSL regular seasons between NC and KC.

Debinha is sixth all-time for leading scorers in the NWSL regular season with 55 goals. She's behind Sam Kerr (77), Lynn Biyendolo (70), Christine Sinclair (66), Alex Morgan (60) and Ashley Hatch (59). Debinha ranks third among active leading scorers in the NWSL regular season with 55, trailing only Biyendolo (70) and Hatch (59).

Debinha has had four career regular season braces (two with Kansas City and two with North Carolina). She has had five direct free kick goals across all competitions, which ranks third all-time.

With 55 goals and 26 assists on her resume, no other player has recorded more goal contributions in regular season NWSL play than Debinha since her league debut in 2017.

She became the fifth player in NWSL history to hit the 50 goal-25 assist milestone, and the second active player along with Lynn Biyendolo. Also on the list is Alex Morgan (60g, 28a), Jess McDonald (54g, 31a) and Megan Rapinoe (51g, 26a).

Debinha became the sixth player in NWSL history to join the 40 goal-20 assist club. She is one of three active players to hit that milestone alongside Lynn Biyendolo and Jess Fishlock. Sam Kerr (77g, 24a), Alex Morgan (60g, 28a), Jess McDonald (54g, 31a) and Megan Rapinoe (51g, 26a) have also reached that milestone.

Across all competitions* (regular season, playoffs, Challenge Cup, 2020 Fall Series, Summer Cup), Debinha is currently tied for second among goal leaders in NWSL history with 79 goals. That trails only Lynn Biyendolo (82g) and is tied with Christine Sinclair (79g). Does not include non-NWSL competitions (international friendlies, international matches, Women's Cup, Teal Rising Cup, pre-season games, etc.)*

Debinha scored her 19th career regular season game-winning goal on Sept. 20, which clinched the Shield for Kansas City. That moved her to be ranked third in NWSL history for game-winners behind Lynn Biyendolo (23) and Ashley Hatch (21).

SHE'S A KEEPER ... Lorena had a dominant NWSL debut season in 2025. She was named the NWSL Goalkeeper of the Year – the first in club history – and was named to the NWSL Best XI First Team. She was also tabbed to the NWSL Best XI of the Month in March and June.

Lorena set several NWSL and club records last season:

- NWSL record for most shutouts (14)
- NWSL record for consecutive shut-out minutes (690)
- Tied NWSL record for fastest goalkeeper to reach 10 shutouts
- First NWSL goalkeeper to go 5-0-0 in first five league appearances
- Club record for career shutouts (14)
- Club record for single season shutouts (14)
- Club record for consecutive shutouts (4)
- Club record for most regular season starts (24)
- Club record for regular season minutes (2,160)

Lorena finished the 2025 regular season ranked first in the NWSL with her league-record 14 clean sheets. Her .827 save percentage at the end of the regular season also ranked first among goalkeepers who started double-digit games this season. Her six saves at Utah on Aug. 8 is her single-season high.

Lorena's next shutout will be her 15th, becoming the 13th goalkeeper in NWSL history to reach 15 regular season shutouts with one club.

THE LO-DOWN ... Midfielder Lo'eau

LaBonta solidified herself as one of the league's all-time greats from the penalty spot last year. Entering the 2026 season, she is tied for first in NWSL history for most regular season penalties scored with 14. She is tied with Megan Rapinoe and Marta.

LaBonta is 14-of-15 from the spot in her career, all for Kansas City. She has converted each of her last 11 penalty attempts (regular season and playoffs).

LaBonta became the second player in KC Current history (and 31st player in NWSL history) with 20 goals for the same club. She also became the 33rd player in NWSL history to score 25 regular season career goals. She has 10 NWSL Best XI honors – tied for second all-time.

LaBonta earned her first USWNT call-up in May 2025. She made her first appearance for the Stars and Stripes on May 31, becoming the oldest player to debut for the USWNT in the program's 40-year history. She also subbed in during the second match on June 3. She then was added to the USWNT roster during the October FIFA window and subbed in during two matches.

DYNAMITE DEFENSE ... Kansas City concluded the 2025 regular season having conceded just 13 goals. That broke 2018 North Carolina and 2021 Portland's NWSL record of allowing 17 goals.

KC's 16 shutouts in 2025 set a new single-season club record, shattering the previous record of nine from 2024. Those 16 shutouts is also an NWSL record, breaking the previous mark of 13 owned by 2021 Portland and 2024 Orlando.

The Current set another NWSL record in 2025 with nine straight regular season clean sheets from June 20 to Sept. 20. The old record was five straight from Seattle 2016, North Carolina 2021 and Orlando 2024. Kansas City also set a new NWSL record for consecutive regular season shutout minutes at 869. The streak began in the 89th minute on June 14 and concluded in the 57th minute on Sept. 26.

#TEMVP ... Temwa Chawinga is the back-to-back Golden Boot winner and MVP, bringing home both awards in 2024 and 2025. She was named to the Best XI First Team both years, too.

Chawinga is the first player in NWSL history to be named MVP in consecutive years. She joins Sam Kerr (2017, 2019) as the only players in league history to win MVP multiple times. Chawinga is also the second player in NWSL history to win the Golden Boot multiple times, joining Sam Kerr who won it three straight years from 2017-19.

Chawinga scored 20 regular season goals in 2024 and 15 in 2025. She is the second player in NWSL history to have consecutive seasons with 15+ goals, joining Sam Kerr (2017, 2018, 2019).

Chawinga has scored at least once in two-thirds (32/48) of her regular season appearances. She has scored 39 goals in 53 appearances across all competitions, with 15 of those goals being game-winners. That's more game-winners than any other player since she joined the NWSL last season.

The forward was recently named the Sports Personality of the Year and Sports Woman of the Year for Malawi. She was also nominated for the 2025 CAF Women's Player of the Year. Last summer, she earned her first Ballon d'Or nomination and finished 17th in the final standings.

#KCBABY ... In July 2025, Vanessa DiBernardo and her husband, Andy, announced their pregnancy. She gave birth to daughter Charlie Mae in January 2026. DiBernardo, who is the first player to have a baby while on the Current's roster, remains on maternity leave.

MADAM PRESIDENT ... Haley Hopkins enters her second year as the president of the NWSL Players Association (NWSLPA). Hopkins took over for Tori Huster, who moved into a deputy executive director role alongside executive director Meghann Burke. Hopkins is the fourth NWSLPA President in the organization's history.

Hopkins is the first NWSLPA President in Kansas City Current history and is largely responsible for making governing decisions on the behalf of all NWSL players. Hopkins previously served as an NWSLPA player representative, one of two elected by each NWSL team, with the North Carolina Courage.

In August 2025, Hopkins was accepted to the Harvard Business School Fall 2025 Crossover Into Business Program, a semester-long program that helps professional athletes develop business skills for during and after their careers, matching them with MBA student mentors for case study discussions and business education tailored to their interests.

PITCH(SIDE) PERFECT ... On May 13, 2025, the Kansas City Current announced a historic partnership with Pitchside Coffee as a restaurant partner at CPKC Stadium. Pitchside Coffee was founded in 2024 by six current and former KC Current players: Elizabeth Ball, Vanessa DiBernardo, Kristen Hamilton, Hailie Mace, Desiree Scott and Mallory Weber. They officially opened a storefront in KC's Crossroads District on Aug. 31, 2025.

Pitchside Coffee is the first player-owned vendor to be permanently featured inside a NWSL or women's sports venue. It is also the only food or beverage vendor in an American professional sports venue owned and founded by active professional athletes. Among other beverages, one unique menu item available at each home match is a specialty latte inspired by a KC Current player, which changes each home game.

2025 AWARD ROUNDUP ... The Current returns five players who won or were nominated for major NWSL awards in 2025:

- Temwa Chawinga – MVP, Golden Boot, Best XI First Team
- Lorena – Goalkeeper of the Year, Best XI First Team
- Izzy Rodriguez – Best XI First Team, Defender of the Year finalist
- Kayla Sharples – Best XI First Team, Defender of the Year finalist
- Debinha – Midfielder of the Year finalist

The Current had five Best XI First Team honorees, the most by a single club in the NWSL's 13-year history. Kansas City had seven total Best XI selections, tied for the second-most in league history.

2025 SHIELD WINNERS ... On Sept. 20, 2025, the Kansas City Current won the NWSL Shield with its 2-0 win over Seattle Reign FC as well as Washington Spirit's 1-1 draw with Angel City FC.

2025 NWSL Shield notables:

- Kansas City became the fastest team in NWSL history to clinch the Shield, doing so with five games remaining.
- The Current became the seventh different club in league history to win the Shield, and the last five Shields have been won by five different teams.
- Debinha and now-retired Kristen Hamilton join McCall Zerboni and Abby Dahlkemper as the only players in NWSL history who have been on four Shield-winning teams.
- Debinha and now-retired Kristen Hamilton join Abby Dahlkemper, Meredith Speck and McCall Zerboni for second all-time with eight total NWSL trophies (Champ, Cup, Shield, Summer, Fall).
- First NWSL Shield in club history, and first for former Current head coach Vlatko Andonovski.

HOME SWEET HOME ... The Current has played 37 matches across all competitions (regular season, post-season, NWSL x Liga MX Femenil Summer Cup, The Women's Cup, Teal Rising Cup) at CPKC Stadium – the world's first stadium purpose-built for women's professional sports – since its opening on March 16, 2024. The club boasts an impressive 30-2-5 ledger all-time at CPKC Stadium across all competitions.

In the regular season, KC Current owns a 21-1-5 record across 27 regular season home games, and has scored in all but two regular season matches played at home.

In 2025, the Current became just the sixth team in NWSL history to go unbeaten at home during an entire regular season. 2025 Kansas Current joined 2024 Orlando, 2019 North Carolina, 2014 FCKC, and 2014 and 2015 Seattle.

Temwa Chawinga has been involved in at least one goal in 19 of her 24 NWSL regular season matches at CPKC Stadium, totaling 25 goal contributions (20 goals, five assists). She has contributed to 29 goals (22 goals, seven assists) in her 29 matches at CPKC Stadium across all competitions (she did not play in two home Summer Cup games in 2024, both Teal Rising Cup matches in 2025, vs. Washington in the NWSL regular season, vs. Gotham in the 2026 quarterfinals or vs. Utah in the 2026 regular season).

PENALTIES

REGULAR SEASON GOAL TRACKER

Date	Opponent	Player	Description	Minute	Assist	Score
3/14	Utah	Bethune	As Utah attempted to clear its lines after a corner, Robinson lofted a ball back into the attacking third from near midfield. Her forward lob met Sharples at the top of the penalty and, with a deft flick, she steered the ball between two defenders to an unmarked Bethune who took a touch into space and curled the ball past the keeper.	57'	Sharples	1-1
3/14	Utah	Sentnor	Debinha started the move by racing towards the penalty area and slid a pass to Sentnor, who drove into the 18-yard box as multiple Royals defenders converged on the ball. Sentnor deked forward, then angled back towards the penalty spot to evade the first wave of defenders. She split two more incoming defenders, recentered herself with a touch towards goal, then fired a shot into the lower left corner.	69'	Debinha	2-1
3/22	Chicago	Hopkins	After racing forward, Bethune played a defense-splitting through ball for Sentnor. Sentnor dished the ball back to Bethune, who continued to drive forward before curling a ball down the left wing for Rodriguez. Rodriguez played a one-time ball across the penalty area for Hopkins, who slammed the ball into the back of the net.	57'	I. Rodriguez	1-2

#1 GOALKEEPER MARISA JORDAN

MARISA JORDAN

Pronunciation MUH-riss-uh / JOR-din
Height 6'2
Hometown Hartland, Wis.
Nationality USA
College Purdue
Previous Club North Carolina Courage
Date of Birth Aug. 6, 2000

Marisa Jordan signed with the Kansas City Current in December 2025 after a trade with the North Carolina Courage. Jordan, née Bova, joined the Courage after being selected in the fourth round of the 2022 NWSL Draft with the 45th overall pick. Her professional debut came during the 2024 NWSL x Liga MX Femenil Summer Cup where she shined in the Courage's penalty kick shootout wins over Orlando and Louisville with a trio of shootout saves. She started all four Summer Cup matches, recording eight saves with one clean sheet while completing 90 percent of her passes. Jordan made her NWSL regular season debut on Sept. 6, 2025, during a 1-1 draw vs. Utah where she registered a career-high four saves. Jordan then started the next four regular season matches for the Courage, making a combined five stops. Jordan was a four-year standout at Purdue University from 2018-21, concluding her college career with 230 saves across 5,480 minutes in 58 starts.

#7 DEFENDER ELIZABETH BALL

ELIZABETH BALL

Pronunciation eh-LIH-zuh-beth
Height 5'6
Hometown Richmond, Va.
Nationality USA
College Penn State
Previous Club Utah Royals
Date of Birth Oct. 20, 1995

Elizabeth Ball has been a cornerstone of the Kansas City Current since joining the team in January 2021 as part of its first-ever roster after being acquired from the Utah Royals. She inked a three-year extension in 2021 before signing another extension in 2025 through the 2026 season with a one-year mutual option for 2027. A steadfast defender, Ball previously spent time with the Portland Thorns (2018–19) and the Utah Royals (2020). With over 100 appearances for Kansas City across all competitions, she ranks among the top in all-time matches played for the franchise. Notable moments include her first NWSL goal against the Houston Dash on October 13, 2021; a game-winning header versus the Utah Royals on May 25, 2024; and her first multi-assist game on June 23, 2024, against the Portland Thorns. She scored in a win at Racing Louisville on Aug. 1, 2025, in what was her 100th career regular season appearance.

#22 MIDFIELDER BAYLEY FEIST

BAYLEY FEIST

Pronunciation BAILEY / FIESt
Height 5'6
Hometown Cincinnati, Ohio
Nationality USA
College Wake Forest
Previous Club Washington Spirit
Date of Birth March 14, 1997

Bayley Feist joined the Kansas City Current in January 2024 as a free agent, inking a two-year deal through the 2025 season. She then signed a one-year contract extension in January 2026 through the 2026 season. Feist played five seasons with the Washington Spirit after being drafted No. 17 overall in the 2019 NWSL Draft. She made 53 appearances with the Spirit across all competitions while recording three goals and three assists. In her debut season with the Current in 2024, Feist scored her first goal for the club in a 5–2 victory over Bay FC on April 20, 2024, and played a key role in Kansas City’s triumph in the 2024 NWSL x Liga MX Femenil Summer Cup. She appeared in nine regular season matches for the Current in 2025 with five starts, also dishing out two assists as the club won the Teal Rising Cup. Feist helped the Current win the 2025 NWSL Shield while setting league records for points (65), wins (21) and consecutive wins (9), among others.

Playing Career

1990-93 Adelphi University Panthers
1994-95 Long Island Rough Riders
1996-97 LA Galaxy
1998-07 Chicago Fire
1998-05 U.S Men's National Team

Chris Armas was named head coach of the Kansas City Current on Jan. 7, 2026. Armas, who was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 2025, brings with him over three decades of playing and coaching experience at the highest level of the sport.

Armas' coaching career began in 2008 as an assistant for Chicago Fire FC before spending four years as the head women's soccer coach at Adelphi University, his alma mater, from 2011-14. Under his direction, Adelphi had back-to-back Northeast 10 (NE10) Tournament final appearances in 2012 and 2013, earned its first NCAA Tournament berth in six years in 2013 and rose as high as ninth in the national rankings in 2014. Armas, who produced 20 All-Conference and six All-Region selections during his time with the Panthers, was recognized as the United Soccer Coaches Regional Coaching Staff of the Year and the NE10 Conference Coaching Staff of the Year in 2013.

In 2015, he joined the New York Red Bulls as an assistant coach and the team won the Supporters' Shield that year. Armas was appointed the Red Bulls' head coach in July 2018, finishing the regular season with a 12-3-3 record as the club won the 2018 Supporters' Shield and advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals. He was then an assistant coach for Manchester United (2021-22) and Leeds United (2023) in the English Premier League, even serving as co-interim head coach of Leeds United. Most recently, Armas was the head coach of the Colorado Rapids in Major League Soccer (MLS) during the 2024 and 2025 seasons. He led the Rapids back to the Audi MLS Cup Playoffs in 2024 and earned a third-place finish in the 2025 Leagues Cup while capturing back-to-back Rocky Mountain Cup titles.

Regarded as the best American defensive midfielder of his generation, Armas had a successful 12-year playing career in the MLS with LA Galaxy in 1996-97 and Chicago Fire FC from 1998 until his retirement in 2007. He amassed 12 goals and 48 assists across 264 MLS matches and won the 1998 MLS Cup, 2003 Supporters' Shield and four Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cups (1998, 2000, 2003, 2006). The Brentwood, New York native is one of only five players in league history to have been named to the MLS Best XI five times (1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2003) and he is a six-time MLS All-Star (1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004). In 2003, he was named the MLS Comeback Player of the Year after recovering from a season-ending injury sustained in 2002. He was also chosen as Chicago Fire FC's MVP during their Shield-winning season that same year.

Armas earned 66 caps and scored two goals for the United States Men's National Team (USMNT) between 1998 and 2005, and he was tabbed the U.S. Soccer Male Player of the Year in 2000. He was a key member of the USMNT squads that qualified for the 2002 and 2006 FIFA World Cups – captaining the team on four occasions during those cycles – but untimely injuries kept him out of both World Cups as well as the 2000 Olympic Games.

A 1994 graduate of Adelphi, Armas earned All-America honors and helped guide the Panthers to three straight NCAA Tournament appearances. He was a two-time All-New York State honoree and led the roster in scoring with 17 points as a senior. After college, Armas spent two years playing for the Long Island Rough Riders in the U.S. Interregional Soccer League (USISL) and was a USISL All-Star for guiding his team to the 1995 Pro League Championship. He was selected to be part of the inaugural class of the Long Island Soccer Football League Hall of Fame in 2013.

Armas and his wife, Justine, have two sons: Christopher and Aleksei.

TECH STAFF

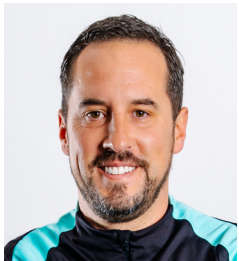

Vlatko Andonovski - Sporting Director

Andonovski, who served as the Current's head coach and sporting director since October 2023, transitioned into the role as the club's global sporting director in November 2025. In this new role, Andonovski will work with Armas and the head of player development role to implement the long-term vision for the club's technical and athletic success, as well as be responsible for player recruitment, roster strategy and scouting.

Freya Coombe - Assistant Coach

Coombe holds a U.S. Soccer Pro License. She played professionally in England before coming to the U.S. in 2019 and being named the head coach of Sky Blue FC (later becoming NJ/NY Gotham FC). She left in 2021 to become the first coach of NWSL expansion side Angel City FC. She enters her third year on staff with the KC Current.

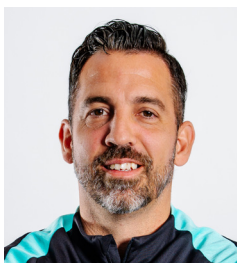

Milan Ivanovic - Assistant Coach

Originally from Serbia, where he grew up in the Red Star Belgrade youth system, Ivanovic had been part of Vlatko Andonovski's staff for several years, first joining him as FC Kansas City made their title run in 2015, following him to Seattle with the Reign in 2018 and then to the international stage with the USWNT. He enters his third year on staff with the Current.

Ljupčo 'Raki' Kmetovski - Assistant Coach

Kmetovski, known simply as Raki, holds a UEFA "A" License and a UEFA "Pro" goalkeeper license. He originally came to the U.S. after a long successful career as the Director of Goalkeeping for the Football Federation of Macedonia. He joined Vlatko Andonovski's staff at the Seattle Reign in 2018. He enters his third year on staff with the KC Current.

Lucas Rodriguez - Assistant Coach

A native of Argentina, Rodriguez moved to the United States as a teenager. He played professionally for five seasons with Minnesota United FC and Jacksonville Armada FC, and then spent nine years playing for the Kansas City Comets. He holds a USSF A License. Rodriguez enters his sixth year with the Current in 2026.
