MATCH NOTES

- ANOTHER XI: Laura Harvey fielded her 21st unique starting XI through 26 matches this season. Tonight's lineup featured three changes from Saturday's 2-1 loss to Denver Summit FC, with Jess Fishlock, Ainsley McCammon and Maddie Mercado replacing Angharad James-Turner, Sally Menti and Nerilia Mondesir.
- REIGN-ING RECORDS: With tonight's 2-0 result, Seattle became the first team in NWSL history to win five consecutive regular season home matches without conceding a goal. The club has not conceded at home since the 72nd minute against Angel City FC on August 9, a shutout streak that now stands at 468 minutes.
- SEATTLE STREAKS: The club extended its home unbeaten streak to seven matches, dating back to July 12. Seattle also extended its club-record scoring streak to 17 consecutive matches, dating back to May 22 against Boston Legacy FC.
- MADDIE DAHLIEN: Maddie Dahlien made her 50th NWSL regular season appearance tonight and assisted Jess Fishlock's second goal. The second-year forward has recorded seven goals and eight assists in her regular season career, including four goals and four assists during her rookie campaign in 2025, when she was named a finalist for NWSL Rookie of the Year. Her eight regular season assists rank eighth in club history.

- CLAUDIA DICKEY: Claudia Dickey finished the night with two saves to record her seventh shutout of the season, tying her single-season career high set in 2025. Dickey now has 20 regular season shutouts and 27 wins across her NWSL career, surpassing Hope Solo for the most regular season goalkeeper wins in club history.
- JESS FISHLOCK: Jess Fishlock recorded a brace with a goal in each half, tying and then surpassing Megan Rapinoe for the most regular season goals in club history with 52. Fishlock now ranks ninth in NWSL history in regular season goals. The brace marked her first since 2023.
- SERIES: With tonight's result, Seattle now holds an all-time record of 2-0-0 against Boston Legacy FC across all competitions.
- UP NEXT: Reign FC (12-10-4, 40 points) hosts the North Carolina Courage (12-10-3, 39 points) for its second annual Queen's Match on Friday, October 2 (7:00 p.m. PT / NWSL+).
