2026 GAME NOTES

MATCH STORYLINES

A Chance at History in Seattle
The Pride have won each of their last two visits to Lumen Field, earning a 3-2 victory in 2024 and a 1-0 win last season after going winless in their first eight road matches against the Reign. A win this weekend would see the Pride become the first team in NWSL history to win three consecutive regular-season road matches against Seattle.

Washington's Moment
Solai Washington has contributed to four goals in her last five appearances, tallying two goals and two assists during that span. With goals in each of her last two matches, the 21-year-old became the youngest player in Pride history to score in consecutive regular-season matches, breaking the previous mark set by Alanna Kennedy at age 22 in 2017.

Obrigado, Rafa
Sunday's match against Seattle will serve as Rafaelle's final NWSL appearance after the Brazilian defender announced her retirement ahead of the Pride's home finale against Gotham FC. Since arriving in Orlando in July 2023, Rafaelle has made 52 appearances across all competitions and helped the club secure the 2024 NWSL Shield and NWSL Championship, the first trophies in Pride history. She also scored twice in purple, finding the net in her debut against Chicago in August 2023 and in the 2025 NWSL Challenge Cup against Washington

Finding Form Away From Home
After collecting just seven points from their first 10 road matches of the season, the Pride have found their form away from home, taking 10 points from their last four. That stretch includes a 3-1 victory at Bay FC on Sept. 27 and a 2-1 win at Houston on Oct. 18, with the Pride winning three of their last four away matches entering this weekend's contest in Seattle.

Welcome Back, Kylie
Defender Kylie Nadaner made her first appearance of the 2026 season in the Pride's Oct. 25 match against Gotham FC, entering as a second-half substitute. The appearance marked her first for Orlando since Aug. 30, 2025, also against Gotham FC, as Nadaner returned to action following maternity leave.

Milestone Tracker:
- Oihane's next appearance will be her 50th across all competions with the Pride and in NWSL.
- Haley McCutcheon is two goals away from scoring her 15th across all competitions in her Pride career. She would become the fifth player in Club history to score 15 or more goals with the Pride.

PREVIOUS MATCH RECAP

Score: Orlando 1, Gotham 2
Date: Oct. 25, 2026
Summary:
Gotham opened the scoring in the 22nd minute when Midge Purce rose to meet a cross from Guro Reiten and powered a header just beneath the crossbar.

The visitors added a second goal in the 62nd minute following a corner kick. After Jaelin Howell's header struck the crossbar, Tierna Davidson reacted quickest to the loose ball and converted from close range.

Solai Washington reduced the deficit just three minutes later after capitalizing on a turnover in midfield, holding off two defenders before racing through on goal and calmly slotting home to make it 2-1 in the 65th minute.

The Pride will now hit the road for their final match of the 2026 campaign, taking on Seattle Reign FC on Sunday, November 1, at Lumen Field (5 p.m. ET | ESPN).

Scoring Recap:
GFC – Midge Purce (Guro Reiten) 22' GFC - Tierna Davidson 62'
ORL – Solai washington 65'
